PREFACE.

This is the finest collection of Americana ever offered for sale in this country or Europe. Nearly all the books in the magnificent series of early works relating to this country are scarce, and many of them are excessively rare.

The Americana in the famous Library at Britwell Court, Burnham, Bucks, England, the property of S. R. Christie-Miller, Esq., was catalogued for sale by auction in London last August, but just before the date set for the sale the collection was bought en bloc and brought to New York, where it was sold to Mr. Henry E. Huntington.

Mr. Huntington removed about fifty books to strengthen his own unrivalled collection, added about the same number of great rarities that had formerly been in the Barlow, Ives Heber, Crane, Church, and Chew Libraries, and then consigned the books for sale, thus affording other collectors an opportunity to acquire many books so scarce that they rarely come on the market.

When nearly every book among the three hundred is very important and every collector will give the most careful attention to every page of the Catalogue it is unnecessary to go deeply into details in a preface, but a very brief reference may be permitted to some of the greatest rarities, like:

Las Casas's Spanish Colonie, 1583; Peckham's True Reporte, 1583; Hakluyt's Navigations, 1589; Savile's Libell of Spanish Lies, 1596; Nicholl's Houre Glass, 1607, one of six copies known; Champlain's Voyages et Descouvertures, with the date 1619 on the engraved title; Eburne's Plaine Path-way, 1624; Gordon's Encouragements, 1625; the Humble Request, being the Farewell Address of Governor Winthrop, 1630; Champlain's Voyages, 1632; Thomas Morton's New English Canaan, 1637; Bullock's Virginia, uncut, 1649; Langford's Refutation, 1655, one of four known copies; Nathaniel Morton's New England's Memorial, 1669, the first historical book printed in America; Hubbard's Narrative, 1677, with the original map of New England; and the writings of Captain John Smith, including his True Relation, 1608, his Description of New England, 1616, two copies of the First Edition of his Virginia, 1624, his Advertisements for the Unexperienced Planters, 1631, and his Perfect Description of Virginia, 1649, of which no copy has been sold in many years.

Attention should also be called to the magnificent set of De Bry's Voyages, embracing his Voyages to America, 13 parts in Latin and 14 in German, 1590-1634, and his Voyages to the East Indies, 12 parts in Latin and 13 parts in German, 1597-1628, of which each part will be sold separately so that American collectors may complete their sets.

Every book in this Catalogue, except where otherwise noted, is from the Christie-Miller Collection.

Written in Spanish by Joseph Acosta, and translated into English by E. G. 4to, original limp vellum.

Lond.: Printed by Val. Sims for Edward Blount and William Aspley, 1604.

THE VERY RARE FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, IN SPLENDID CONDITION.

A most important work, the best evidence of its merits being that it has been translated into almost every language in Europe. Sabin enumerates 22 editions. The work is replete with details of the Aborigines, before their peculiar customs had become modified by contact with the whites. Although Acosta was one of the earliest, yet he was one of the most curious and accurate observers of the customs and peculiarities of the Aborigines who have attempted to describe them. In perfect and crisp condition, a few insignificant wormings on some margins being the only defects.

3. ACUNA (C. D'). Voyages and Discoveries in South-America. The First up the River of Amazons. By Christopher D'Acugna. The Second up the River of Plata. By Mons. Acarete. The Third from Cayenne into Guina. By M. Grillet and Bechamel. Done into English from the Originals. 2 fine folding maps. 8vo, contemporary calf, back gilt tooled (one margin torn). Lond.: Printed for S. Buckley, 1698

Bedford (slight repairs to title).

Lond.: Printed for Nathaniel Bvtter, 1630

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. Contains the original folding map in fine condition. It is a re-issue of the unsold sheets of Sir Wm. Alexander's "An Encouragement to Colonies" which appeared in 1625. The work is a record of the Earl of Stirling's unsuccessful attempt to found a Scotch colony in Nova Scotia, to which he gave its name. The map displays the country from Cape Cod to the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and containes the names of the patentees among whom the Country was originally divided.

The E. D. Church copy with the bookplate.

5. APPOLONII (LEVINI). De Peruviae, Regionis, unter Novi Orbis provincias celeberrimae, inventione: et rebus in eadem gestis libri V. Small 8vo, old tree-calf gilt (title soiled and slightly defective, wants Bellero's Map of America, some margins cut close). Antwerpiae: Jo. Bellerus, 1566

6. ARCHDALE (JOHN, Late Governor of Carolina). A New Description of that Fertile and Pleasant Province of Carolina; with a Brief Account of its Discovery, Settling, and the Government thereof to this Time. With several Remarkable Passages of Divine Providence during my Time. Small 4to, half levant morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere.

Lond.: Printed for John Wyat, 1707

FIRST EDITION. PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR, with the inscription "Ex dono Author, 29 Junii, 1708" on title, and name of W. Musgrave written on verso of title. The margin of p. 9 has had some ink marks partially eradicated, and on the last page the word "begin" has been corrected by the author, to "assist in." In the printing, sig.B has been entirely omitted, agreeing in this respect with the Church collation. The present copy has the rare half-title.

Gov. Archdale came to America in 1685 and made himself highly popular with the earlier settlers. He introduced the cultivation of rice, and under his administration the colony was very prosperous.

7. ATKINS (JOHN). A Voyage to Guinea, Brasil and the West Indies; In His Majesty's Ships, the Swallow and Weymouth. Describing the several Islands and Settlements, viz. Madeira, the Canaries, Cape de Verd, Sierraleon, Sesthos, Cape Apollonia, Cabo Corso and others on the Guinea Coast; Barbadoes, Jamaica, &c. in the West-Indies. Robert Johnson was the author of "Nova Britannia" and "The New Life of Virginia."

THE WORK IS OF EXCESSIVE RARITY, the barest title being noted by bibliographers, and is probably by Johannem Baers, who wrote "Olinda, ghelegen int Landt van Brazil," etc., Amsterdam, 1630, relating to the taking of Pernambuco by the Dutch.

Inlaid throughout, and catchwords and head-lines cut into (including date on title), the text however being perfect, except lower line of p. 20 cut into slightly. Sig. A, being in three instead of four indicates the preliminary blank leaf is wanting, as the text is complete. The work ends with Ei.

9. B. (I.). A Plaine and true relation of the going forth of a Holland Fleete the eleventh of November 1623, to the Coast of Brasile. With the taking in of Salvedoe, and the chiefe occurrences falling out there, in the time of the Hollanders continuance therein. 11. BEVERLEY (ROBERT). The History and Present State of Virginia, in Four Parts. I. The History of the First Settlement of Virginia, and the Government thereof to the present Time. II. The Natural Productions, and Conveniences of the Country, suited to Trade and Improvement. III. The Native Indians, their Religion, Laws and Customs, in War and Peace. IV. The present State of the Country, as to the Polity of the Government, and the Improvements of the Land. Lond.: Printed for R. Parker, at the Unicorn, 1705

A large and clean copy of the FIRST EDITION, with the plates in brilliant state. Some of the leaves are still unopened. This work affords the most vivid, comprehensive, instructive, and entertaining pictures of Virginia at the date of its publication that is to be found.

12. BEVERLEY (ROBERT). The same. The Second Edition, revised and enlarged by the author. With frontispiece and 14 copper-plate engravings by Gribelin after De Bry. 8vo, full old calf, rubbed (some pp. spotted).

In two volumes, small 4to, limp vellum, gilt, with the Miller monogram on covers, by F. Bedford (sig. A 2 cut close).

Imprinted at London by Richard Field dwelling in the Blacke-Friars by Ludgate, 1589.

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH, with the maps called for on title-page, and with the line of errata on the last page. THIS COPY IS PERFECT, with the FOUR ORIGINAL LARGE FOLDED MAPS by Baptista Boazio (bound in a separate volume), EACH MAP CONTAINING THE GENUINE TYPE PRINTED ENGLISH TEXT ON SEPARATE SLIPS PASTED AT THE FOOT OF EACH MAP.

The four maps are those of St. Jago, S. Domingo, Cartagena, and St. Augustine, and are from the plates of the maps in the Latin edition printed at Leyden, 1588. A few letters in the fold of the first two maps are very slightly defective, and the text of St. Iago is a little defective in two places. The maps have been reinforced with silk in the folds.

A HANDSOME COPY OF THIS MOST IMPORTANT NARRATIVE, RARELY TO BE FOUND IN SUCH CRISP, PERFECT STATE AS THE PRESENT COPY.

14. BIGGES (WALTER). A Summarie and True Discourse of Sir Frances Drakes West Indian Voyage. Wherein were taken, the Townes of Saint Jago, Sancto Domingo, Cartagena & Saint Augustine. THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the large woodcut initial on A3 in brilliant state. British Museum duplicate, with stamp.

One of the rarest of the early books relating to travels and discoveries in Virginia.

Carolina, Virginia, New England, Tobago, New-found-Land, Mary-Land, New York, etc. With new maps of every place. Portrait of James II engraved by Van Hove, 7 maps and a Sun-Dial plate. 8vo, contemporary calf.

Lond.: Printed by H. Clark for Dorman Newman, 1687

A splendid copy, with broad margins, of this EXCEEDINGLY RARE AND INTERESTING WORK. Fully half of the book is devoted to separate histories and descriptions of the provinces and colonies which comprise the United States. The history and description of New England is largely taken up with the Indians and their wars with the colonists up to the death of King Philip, son of Massasoit. This is followed by "An Account of one Stockwell, of Deerfield, concerning his Captivity and Redemption," etc. This narrative covers 12 pages, and we cannot find any record of its having been reprinted.

The portrait is somewhat smaller than the other leaves, and there is a slight tear in the folding map; otherwise, a very desirable copy.

18. BRICKELL (JOHN). The Natural History of North-Carolina. With an Account of the Trade, Manners, and Customs of the Christian and Indian Inhabitants. Folding map and 4 copper-plate engravings of the beasts, birds, reptiles and fish. 8vo, contemporary sprinkled calf, gilt.

This is a guide for prospective settlers, and is a well-written work, notwithstanding that the author declares it was composed in the brief space of "six nights." The book abounds with details of the Virginia Colony of the highest value and interest, and in this respect, indeed, is not surpassed by any other contemporary work.

(See Illustration.)

Small 8vo, full crimson levant morocco, gilt back, fillet panel on covers, with the Miller arms on both covers, inside dentelle borders, gilt edges, by F. Bedford.

Lond.: Printed by W. Stansby, for W. Welby, 1613

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION. The Epistle dedication is signed W. C. (probably W. Castell). This is the curious and interesting voyage which Malone considered as having suggested to Shakespeare his different allusions to these Islands as the stillvexed Bermoothes, in "The Tempest." Sabin gives the collation of the book as 43 pp. and states that 20 pp. of the text are in BLACK LETTER. The present copy has 52 pp. (last page blank) and 39 pages in BLACK LETTER. In his dedication to the Reader, the author says: "Good Reader, this is the first Booke published to the world touching Sommer Ilands: but who shall live to see the last?"

The top margin of E4 is defective, affecting the first line of text, and margin of title and a few other small sections very skilfully mended.

26. CASTELL (WILLIAM). A Short Discoverie of the Coasts and Continent of America, From the Equinoctiall Northward, and of the adjacent Isles . . . . . Together with Sir Benjamin Rudyers Speech in Parliament, 21 Jan. concerning America. Small 4to, boards, morocco back.

Lond.: Printed in the yeer 1644

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. The complete work, covering both Books. Prefixed to the work is the Author's Petition to Parliament for the propagation of the Gospel in America, which Stevens says "should find a place in every collection of the so-called 'Eliot Tracts' for herein is contained the embryo idea or suggestion that Parliament should recognize the benefits to be derived by the Colonies from cultivating the friendship of the Indians," etc. There is no doubt that this Petition caused widespread interest in the welfare of the Plantations.

The sig. mark B3 has been cut into very slightly, which is the only defect in this important work. An original front wrapper used on the pamphlet by a former owner has been preserved, on which has been written the title of the book and the date of publication.

See "A Plaine Description of the Barmudas," Lot No. 25.

27. CHAMPLAIN (SAMUEL DE). Voyages et Descouvertes faites en la Nouvelle France depuis l'année 1615, jusques à la fin de l'année 1618 . . . . . A Paris: Chez Claude Collet, au Palais en la gallerie des Prisonniers, M. D. C. XX.

A VERY FINE CRISP COPY OF THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the folding and full-page plates in brilliant state, and the TWO BLANK LEAVES at the end (v. 7 and 8).

A stain in the centre of leaves 96 and 98 is the only defect. The work is sometimes found with the date 1619 on the printed title, which is the only difference between the two issues.

28. CHAMPLAIN (SAMUEL DE). Les Voyages de la Nouvelle France, dicte Canada . . . . & toutes les Descouvertes qu'il a faites en ce pais depuis l'an 1603, jusques en l'an 1629, etc. WITH THE GENUINE ORIGINAL FOLDING COPPER-PLATE MAP, IN FINE IMPRESSION, and engravings in the text. 4to, full crushed crimson levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt (hole in one leaf through defective paper, title cleaned, and name cut from title over imprint, and blank skilfully repaired). A Paris: Chez Pierre Le-Mur, 1632

A HANDSOME COPY OF THE ONLY COMPLETE EDITION OF CHAMPLAIN, containing the reprinted (corrected) leaves D2 and 3, cancelled because of the statements reflecting on Cardinal Richelieu. P. 27 ends with the words "telles descouvertes," and p. 29 with the words "pour nourrir."

This is the last of Champlain's works, printed shortly before his last voyage to Canada (where he died in 1635), and it is perhaps the most important, as it contains a review of all preceding French Expeditions to the New World, interwoven with Champlain's account of his own voyages to Canada, with a history of that country. IT GIVES THE FIRST ACCURATE ACCOUNT OF THE LIFE, HABITS AND WARFARE OF THE INDIANS IN WHAT IS NOW THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

VERY RARE.

29. In the present copy H is in 5; I is in 5 and K is in 4, with Colophon on verso of K4. Bedford.

[Francoforti ad Moenum]: In officina Sigismundi Feirabendii, 1592.

LATIN. AMERICA. Part III. FIRST EDITION. First Issue. An exceedingly choice copy. This part is made up of two separate Narratives: The first is the account of two voyages made to Brazil in 1546-1548 and 1549-1555 by Johann von Staden. This narrative was originally written in German by the author, and published at Marburg in 1557. The Latin translation here given is the work of Adam Loncier. The second part is an account of a voyage to Brazil in 1556-1558 by Jean de Lery, and was originally published in French in 1578.

In the present copy, the map follows the Preface, and the plates on pp. 56 and 68 are in their uncovered state, and not the pasted-down impressions of the plate on p. 52 as in some copies. The final blank leaf is wanting.

45. DE BRY (THEODOR). The same. Two engraved titles, map, measuring 14 13/16 x 18¾ inches (with a slight Impressum Francofurti ad Moenum: Apud Matthiam Beckerum, 1605.

LATIN. AMERICA. Part III. Second Edition. First Issue. In this edition signature mark Y2 is incorrectly printed T2. Page 144 is blank, but leaf S4 has been inserted here, with verso containing the plate of Adam and Eve, from the Second issue. This copy has the head-piece, with cherub's face in centre, on verso of plate of the arms with Virtues. Unlike the Church copy, the plates are not transposed, but are on the same pages as in the First Edition. At page 66 a leaf has been inserted with the plate usually found on p. 128; at page 80 is inserted a leaf with the duplicate of the plate at page 74, and at p. 224 is a leaf inserted, from the Second Issue, showing a variation in the "demon" plate.

47. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars Quarta. Sive Insignis & Admiranda Historia de reperta primum Occidentali India à Christophoro Columbo Anno M.CCCCXCII. Map and 24 engraved plates. Folio, full orange morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms, by F. Bedford.

Impressum Francofurti ad Moenum: Typis Ioannis Feyrabend, 1594.

LATIN. AMERICA. Part IV. FIRST EDITION. First Issue (with title-page of the Second Edition).

This part contains the beginning of Girolamo Benzoni's "Historia del Mondo Nuovo." The remainder was published in the Parts V. and VI. The second engraved title is slightly extended on one margin. On plate 1, the initial H has dropped down, breaking the type of the first word of line 6. Although the first five lines of this plate measure only 5 5/16 inches, yet like all the plates of the First Issue it is without number. In addition to the numbered plates, there are the two text plates at the front, and the plate of Arms, with the six Virtues. The map is perfect, with border and margins, and, like the titles and plates, is in brilliant impression.

In this issue, the Colophon is on verso of p. 146, and the blank leaves R6 and F6 are genuine.

48. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars Quarta. The same. Map and engraved plates. Folio, full orange morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms, by F. Bedford.

Francofurti ad Moenum: Typis Ioannis Feyrabend, 1594

LATIN. AMERICA. Part IV. FIRST EDITION. Second Issue. In this issue, the two title-pages, the first and that to the plates, are alike, and the plates have Arabic numbers engraved on the coppers. In other respects this second issue is similar to the first. The blank leaves R6 and F6 are genuine. Plates 21 and 24 are shorter by about ¼ inch than the remainder of the plates, and plate 23 has been extended on inner margin.

49. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars Quarta. Sive Insignis & Admiranda Historia de reperta primum Occidentali India à Christophoro Columbo Anno M.CCCCXCII. Map and engraved plates. Folio, full crimson levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt.

[Francofurti ad Moenum]: Theodoro de Bry, 1595

LATIN. AMERICA. Part V. FIRST EDITION. First Issue. This part contains the second portion of Benzoni's History, which was begun in Part IV. Duplicate title-pages have been inserted both in the front and before the plates from a Second issue of this edition, which read in the fifth line "secunda sectionis Hia" . . . . and in the last line but two the corrected word "invictis" instead of "Invistis." The portrait of Columbus is followed by 11 lines of text; the folding map of Mexico has been mounted on guard, and the folds strengthened with silk. The blank leaves L3 and 4 are wanting, but the blank leaf F4 is genuine.

51. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars Quinta. The same. Portrait of Columbus, map of Mexico and 22 numbered plates. Folio, full orange morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms, by F. Bedford.

[Francofurti ad Moenum]: Theodoro de Bry 1595 ca. 1617

LATIN. AMERICA. Part V. Second Edition. There are many points of variation between this edition and the First. The portrait of Columbus is followed by 13 lines of text; the leaf "Secundi libri Summa et argumentum" has 14 lines of text, with conventional head-piece, grotesque mask in centre; page number 7 in centre, replacing the heading "Præfatio"; the initial S is in mortised centre, and there is no tail ornament. There are only 72 pages instead of 82 (92). The plates are numbered in Arabic figures, with accompanying text in the same size of type as used in the body of the work.

The map of Mexico is mounted on a guard, and the blank leaves 6 and F4 are genuine. The notes to the various chapters are printed in italic characters.

The present copy contains the correct title to the plates, with the slip pasted over the same title as used at the beginning of the volume. The blank leaf at the end, G6, is genuine. In this edition, the text describing the plates is printed in both italics and roman.

53. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars Sexta. The same. Map and engraved plates. Folio, full crimson levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt.

The title-page and page 17 have been extended on corners, and the map and plan of Cusco have been backed with linen. The blank leaves K4 and G6 in this copy are genuine. The text describing the plates is printed in italics.

Verissima et Iucun dissima Descriptio Praecipuarum Quarundam Indiae regionum & Insularum, quae quidem nullis ante haec tempora visae cognitaeque, iam primum ab Ulrico Fabro Straubingensi, multo cum periculo inuentae & ab eodem summa diligentia consignatae suerunt, ex germanico in latinum sermonem coneursa autore M. Gotardo Artus Danticano. With one unnumbered plate. Folio, full orange morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms, by F. Bedford.

[Francofurti ad Moenum]: in officina Theodori de Bry, 1599

LATIN. AMERICA. Part VII. FIRST EDITION. This Part contains an account of the voyages of Ulrich Schmidel to Brazil and Paraguay in 1535-1553. He is one of the first who wrote about that part of America. Two Latin versions of this narrative were printed the same year, the present one, which was by Gotard Artus, and the other by Hulsius (Part IV., First Edition). The title to this Part VII is within the engraved border first used for Part III, and the plate on page 7 is the same as that on page 1 of Part III. A small map of the "Mare del Nort" as found in Part VIII, 3⅝ x 5½ inches, has been laid down on the blank leaf at the end. This blank leaf (H4) is genuine. The small mark like "17" on the plinth of the left-hand pier in the title-page is discernible in this copy.

55. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars VII. The same. Engraved title and 4 unnumbered plates. Folio, half crimson levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt.

[Francofurti ad Moenum] : in officina Theodori de Bry, 1625

Plates 2 and 3 consist of cut-outs laid down over impressions of the same plates. The title-page has been extended on the lower margin.

Impressum Francofurti ad Moenum: per Matthaeum Becker, 1599.

LATIN. AMERICA. Part VIII. FIRST EDITION. First Issue. This Part contains relations of six different voyages; three by Drake, one by Candish or Cavendish, and two by Sir Walter Raleigh. Drake's First Voyage took place in 1577-80. No description of it had previously been published. In the First Issue of this edition signature-mark AA2 is wrongly printed A2. In the present copy there is not the small copper-plate "mappa mundi" at the foot of page 78 of the first pagination, nor is the copper-plate map of the "Mare del Nort," on page 3 of the second pagination. Plates XIII and XIIII were transposed in printing, but the correct plates have been cut out and laid down in their proper places. Page 1 has been extended on lower outer corner and the map has been mounted on a guard and backed with linen. On the title-page is a small engraved map of the two hemispheres.

57. DE BRY (THEODOR). Americae Pars VIII. The same. Map and engraved plates. Folio, full crimson levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt.

Francofurti: Typis Erasmi Kempfferi, 1625

LATIN. AMERICA. Part VIII. Second Edition. First Issue. The map on the title-page of this issue is that of "Mare del

Nort'' sometimes found on p. 3 of the second pagination of the First Edition. This issue has the large folding map of Guiana (which has been backed with linen, and mounted on a guard), and 25 plates, some of which are reproduced in the text from the First Edition. Five of the plates are new, and one of these (on p. 57), Crawford states, caused him much trouble to find. The Adam and Eve plate, with the sig. ''Io. Theodore de Bry fe,'' occupies p. 58, which page is sometimes found blank. The blank leaf N6 is genuine.

On pages 129-150 (160) in this edition is a narrative not to be found in the First. This is an account of an expedition made by the Dutch in 1599 under Pieter van der Does against the Spaniards, particularly at the Canaries.

The E. D. Church copy.

The second series of plates (I-XIV) are numbered on the coppers in Arabic figures, 1-13. There are also references to the numbers of the folios of the German edition, which was published before the Latin. On some of them is also the mark of the engraver (K. G. 1602).

A hole in the margin of leaf Y2 has been repaired, and ff6 has a slight tear on the margin. The blank leaf ddd4 is wanting, but the blank leaf Yy6 is present and genuine.

A copy of the title-page of the Second Issue has been inserted, showing a variation in the vignette, otherwise the same as given above. In the present copy there is no blank leaf between plates X and XI forming sig. c4.

61. DE BRY (THEODOR). This Part contains accounts of two voyages around the world; the first that by William Cornelisz Schouten, under the direction of Jacob le Maire, made in the years 1615-1617, an account of which was first published at Amsterdam in 1618. A Latin edition appeared at the same place in 1619. The present translation differs so materially from it that it is thought to be from an older version. The second voyage is that made by Joris van Spilbergen, in 1614-18. The three blank leaves F6, D6 and d6 are present and genuine. The engraved vignette on the first title-page is the same as the first plate, and that on the title to the Appendix is the same as was used on the title to the Second issue of Part X.

The "Bibliotheca Grenvilliana" says: "These two last parts (XII. and XIII.) are excessively rare, and generally found in very bad condition and without the maps." The present copy is especially fine, with the large folding maps in brilliant impressions. 13⅞ x 9 inches.

Franckfort an Mayn: bey Johann Feyrabendt, 1591

GERMAN. AMERICA. Part II. FIRST EDITION. In both of the titles the German description has been pasted over a blank space, within the engraved border. A small triangular piece has been inserted in the map, a small portion thereby being in facsimile. There are slight tears in a number of the edges. The blank leaf O6 has been taken from the end and inserted as f6. This copy lacks the German imprint (printed on a slip and pasted over the Latin imprint), although the appearance would indicate that it may have once been there. The recto of leaf Oij of the Warhafftige has no side note, and in line 28 of the same page, the "t" shows faintly in the word "Schiffahrten."

The E. D. Church copy.

Maiest. ad quadriennium" are engraved on the border of the title-page, and there is no slip pasted over the Latin imprint. The map has been mounted on a guard, and it, with a few of the plates, has been cropped on edges. A duplicate of plate 3 has been inserted, printed correctly, the plate in the book being upside down (the Church catalogue lists plate 5 as being so printed; that plate in this copy being correct). There is also a duplicate of plate XLI loosely inserted, the one bound in being pasted over another plate. GERMAN. INDIES. Part I. FIRST EDITION. This copy corresponds with the Crawford collation, except that the line at the bottom of the border on the title-page reads "de bry" not "de Bry," and the word "schonen," in the sixth line of the title to the plates is printed as here and not "schönen." The present appears to be of the earlier issue, with the plates 11-14 added from the later issue and a slightly smaller copy (three of these latter plates are repaired on the lower margins, lacks the last blank leaf). Plates 1-10 are numbered in large figures at the upper right-hand corner of the leaves. Plates 11-14 are numbered at the center of the top with smaller Roman numerals. Brunet does not mention the rare half-title of these last 4 plates which appears in this copy. The two sections of the map of Africa are here joined. Both that and the map of the Congo are repaired in the folds.

The line endings to the text below each plate are the proper ones for this edition. Plate [XXXIX], the Oriental coins, appears at its proper place, facing p. 110. The folding maps of Nozambique, Java, Sumatra, etc., and of Goa, at pp. 18, 54, and 80 respectively. Contains also the several other minor misprints in pagination necessary to the First Edition.

This copy does not contain the first "Vorrede" and dedication, of four pages, as that in the first edition. Brunet does not call for this in his collation, though some copies have it. The text below the 38 numbered plates shows the proper variations in specified line endings and number of lines from those of the First Edition. Plate XXXIX is bound facing p. 100, instead of 110 as in the First; the three maps are in the correct places, facing p. 18, p. 54, and p. 80 respectively. Size of leaf 11 11/16 x 7¾ inches.

The plates in this edition have no catch words at the foot of the page. Plate 19 is numbered thus, "IXX." Size of leaf 12⅜ x 7⅞ inches.

GERMAN. INDIES. Part IV. Second Edition. Collation by signatures identically the same as that of the First edition, except that Ciii (repeated) is wrongly marked Cii, and that Roman numerals are used with the letters indicating the signatures instead of Arabic figures. The plates may be distinguished from those of the First by each leaf having a catchword at the foot, while there are no catchwords in the First edition. The last plate has twelve lines of letterpress; in the first it has fourteen. Page 62 is wrongly printed 26; 79 is 76; 84 is 86; 87 is 86; 87 and 88 are omitted in the pagination; 98 is 86; 103 is 10; 105 is 108. In this, as in the First edition, there are really only 119 pages, but through the errors in numbering mentioned above the last is marked 121. Size of leaf 11⅞ x 7 13/16 inches.

The 20 plates have the correct letterpress, showing the variations from the second edition, where the text beneath each plate was reset. The blank leaf between plates 16 and 17 in this copy is a substitute. Lacks the blank leaf at the end. Size of leaf 11 15/16 x 7 13/16 inches.

The 26 plates each have the number of the plate following and the catchword at the foot. They are numbered all in Arabic figures in the upper right hand side of the engraving; the figures of 22 and the 2 of 24 reversed.

FIRST EDITION of each volume. Apparently the first copy offered at auction in twenty years. The author was a Scottish physician resident in Boston, and most of his interesting history comes first-hand.

Leydae: Apud Fr. Raphelengium, 1588

LARGE COPY OF THE VERY RARE FIRST LATIN EDITION, with a vignette on title composed of type ornaments instead of a ship, which probably indicates the earliest issue. This is an original account in Latin of Drake's expedition from 1585 to 1586, during which he captured and plundered Cartagena and other towns, and burned forts San Antonio and St. Augustine. He then visited Roanoke Island, the site of Raleigh's Colony in Virginia, and carried survivors back to England.

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. A FINE, LARGE AND PERFECT COPY, measuring 8 5/16 x 6¼, and WITH THE VERY RARE LEAF OF ERRATA.

In the Grenville catalogue the impression of 1628 was called the earliest, in error.

Aside from a few pages being a little soiled, this copy is most desirable, SOTHEBY EVEN SUGGESTING THE POSSIBILITY OF ITS BEING ON LARGE PAPER.

THE RARE FIRST EDITION. This work was written by Sir Francis Drake, Baronet, a nephew of the Admiral. The narrative covers the period from November 15, 1577, when Drake sailed from Plymouth, until September 26, 1580, when he arrived at the same place on his return.

At the front of the book three leaves of writing paper have been inserted, on which a former owner has transcribed an extract from Campbell's "Lives of the Admiral." There is some old writing on the fly-leaves at the end, and some leaves are stained, but the volume is withal a very good copy.

The Heber and Church copy, with the stamp of the former collection and the Church bookplate.

A VERY DESIRABLE COPY, measuring 7⅝ x 5⅝ inches.

AN EXTREMELY RARE BOOK, of which little seems to be known either by English or American bibliographers. Only one copy is recorded in American sale catalogues, and that is the Barlow copy, which lacked the last 6 pages. No copy in Church or the British Museum collection. Sabin records the wrong date and probably got this title from Lowndes. This copy contains the original first and last blanks.

This account of the author's exploration of the western part of Hudson Bay contains information upon the tides, ice, northern lights, etc., of great value and interest.

The title and all the text of this copy is in beautiful, crisp condition, with wide margins. It measures 5 9/16 by 3⅝ inches, being considerably larger than the Church copy.

This account of Frobisher's second voyage was published before that of Captain Beste, and differs somewhat from that, although both writers accompanied the famous admiral.

SECOND SESSION

Thursday Evening, January 25, 1917, at 8.15 o'clock

LOTS 154–308

154. GUMILLA (JOSEPH, de la Compania de Jesus). El Orinoco Ilustrado, Historia Natural, Civil, y Geographica, de Este Gran Rio, y de sus Caudalosas Vertientes. 2 plates and large folding map. Small 4to, old Spanish mottled calf, gilt tooled on back and panels, gilt edges partly gauffred.

Madrid: Por Manuel Fernandez, Ano 1741

FIRST EDITION. Very fine copy, in firm old binding. Father Gumilla was long considered a highly imaginative traveller, but later discoveries proved him to have been a very trustworthy witness.

155. HAKLUYT (RICHARD). Divers Voyages touching the discouerie of America, and the Ilands adiacent unto the same, made first of all by our Englishmen, and afterwards by the Frenchmen and Britons: and certaine notes of aduertisements for obseruations, necessarie for such as shall heereafter make the like attempt. Black Letter. Small 4to, full crushed blue morocco, gilt back and borders, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms and monogram (the two maps are lacking).

Imprinted at London for Thomas Woodcocke, 1582

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION of the author's first publication and unusually complete, except for the maps, agreeing with the collation of the Grenville copy given in Lowndes, and, in addition, containing the blank leaf after signature G 3, which was absent in the Grenville copy, and unknown to Lowndes. It also contains the 4 leaves forming the second signature A (which are nearly always missing, and which in the Grenville copy are placed at the end), containing: "A latine copie of the letters patentes of King Henrie the seventh, graunted unto John Gabote and his three sonnes," etc.; "The same letters patents in english," and "A note of Sebatian Gabotes voyage of discouerie taken out of an old chronicle written by Robert Fabian," etc.

The former of these, "The Letters Patent of Henry XII." is probably the MOST IMPORTANT DOCUMENT IN THE COLLECTION, and appears here for the FIRST TIME. Next in importance is the relation of Verrazano describing his voyages along the coast of North America; in which he was the first WHO ENTERED THE HARBOR NOW KNOWN AS NEW YORK, discovered Block Island, and entered Narragansett Bay, where he remained fourteen days.

THE PRESENT COPY IS AN EXCEEDINGLY TALL ONE, measuring 7⅜ x 5 inches. The title has been restored on the inner margin, and the corners of several leaves have been mended.

But very few copies of this most uncommon book are complete with the original maps, one being in Church, one in the British Museum, and the Grenville copy.

156. HAKLUYT (RICHARD). The Principall Navigations, Voiages and Discoveries of the English nation, made by Sea or ouer Land, to the most remote and farthest distant Quarters of the earth at any time within the compasse of these 1500 yeeres: Deuided into three seuerall parts, according to the positions of the Regions whereunto they were directed. Folding map. Folio, full green straight-grain morocco, gilt, monogram on the back and the Miller arms on the sides, gilt edges, by F. Bedford (a small tear in the map skilfully repaired).

Imprinted at London by George Bishop and Ralph Newberie, Deputies to Christopher Barker, 1589.

FINE LARGE COPY OF THE RARE ORIGINAL EDITION of Hakluyt's Collection of Voyages. With a fine impression of the rare "Typvs Orbis Terrarvm" map, measuring 15½ x 20 inches. The leaves measure 11⅝ x 7½ inches.

This copy contains "A briefe discourse of the voyage of Sir Ierome Bowes knight, her Maiesties ambassador to the Emperour of Muscouia, in the yeere 1582: and printed this second time," etc., pp. 491-501; also "Drake's Voyage" in the proper place between pp. 643 and 644. It has the last blank, X4 at the end of Part I, and the last blank or fly-leaf, Ffff. 4, which are seldom found. The "Drake Voyage" here mentioned is of great importance as is indicated by the author himself in his address to the reader, in which he notices with regret his being compelled to comply with the request of certain friends, in the suppression of it. He, however, appears to have printed a few copies privately, and they were inserted. Contains the several peculiarities in pagination noticed in most copies of this Edition.

Sabin says: "It is scarcely necessary to suggest that the addition of the original version of Bowes' and Drake's Voyages adds greatly to the value of any copy of the work in which they happen to be."

This First Edition of Hakluyt's Voyages contains an invaluable treasure of nautical information which has affixed to his name a brilliancy of reputation which time can never efface or obscure.

157. HANGER (PHILIP). A True Relation how Eighteen Men were Castaway at Sea: Six of which perished in the Ship, and the other Twelve got into the Boat, and lived at Sea six Weeks in it, with the great Hardships they underwent, and how miraculously they were preserved. Small 4to, half green levant morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere. 15 leaves, including leaf of License.

Lond.: Printed for Charles Harper, 1675

RARE. A very fine copy, the only defect being writing on title "23 Fol. 23"

158. HARCOURT (ROBERT). A Relation of a Voyage to Guiana. Describing the Climat, Scituation, fertilitie, prouisions and commodities of that Country, &c. Small 4to, full crushed citron levant morocco, finely gilt tooled, Miller arms on sides, gilt edges, bound by Bedford (one head-piece slightly cut into, two margins and corner of title very neatly repaired). Lond.: John Beale, 1613

FIRST EDITION. VERY RARE. This copy contains all the preliminary matter, the complete text, and the notes, lacking only the final 3 leaves of the Harcourt Patent.

159. HARCOURT (ROBERT). The Relation of a Voyage to Guiana. Describing the Climate, Situation, Fertilitie & Commodities of that Gountry: Together with the Manner and Customes of the People . . . . . Small 4to, full citron morocco, gilt back and borders, inside dentelles, gilt top, uncut, with the Miller arms on covers, by F. Bedford.

Lond.: Printed by Edw. Allde, dwelling neere Christ-Church, 1626.

The Second Edition, EQUALLY RARE WITH THE FIRST. Not in the Huth Collection. This edition contains 13 pages more matter than in the original edition. Aside from two very slight restorations of margins, one on title and the other on A 3, THIS COPY MAY BE CONSIDERED AS NEARLY IN ITS PRISTINE STATE AS IT IS POSSIBLE TO PROCURE ONE. IT MEASURES 8 x 6 INCHES, AND IS UNCUT.

160. HAWKINS (SIR RICHARD). The Observations of Sir Richard Hawkins Knight, in his Voyage into the South Sea. Anno Domini 1593. Folio, sides from an old Lyonnese calf binding, with rich gilt centre and corner ornaments, gilt initials "H. G." rebacked and re-rimmed in new calf, gilt edges. Lond.: Printed by I. D. for Iohn Iaggard, 1622

A SUPERB COPY OF THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, measuring 7¼ x 11⅜ inches, and IN THE FINEST POSSIBLE CONDITION. The author was a son of the famous Sir John Hawkins, and was Admiral of New England in 1619. He narrates some particulars relating to the Indians of Florida, the Caribbean Islands, and parts of South America, which are interesting as data of their history and mode of life two and a half centuries ago.

161. HENNEPIN (LOUIS). A New Discovery of a Vast Country in America, Extending above Four Thousand Miles, between New France and New Mexico . . . . With a Continuation: Giving an Account of the Attempts of the Sieur De la Salle upon the Mines of St. Barbe, &c. Engraved frontispiece, 2 folding maps, and 6 folding plates. 8vo, old mottled calf, rebacked (slight repairs on the backs of the maps).

Lond.: Printed for M. Bentley, J. Tonson, H. Bon-/wick, T. Goodwin, and S. Manship, 1698.

There are two distinct issues of this FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, this, usually considered the first, is the "Bon" issue, so called on account of the ending of the first line of the imprint. This copy agrees in pagination and arrangement with the Church copy, but differs in that it lacks the unimportant blank leaf at the end of the first part, and has the Chapter number on page 89 of "The Continuation" correctly printed XXIII.

Fine copy. The Niagara plate is known as the earliest view of the falls.

From Mr. Huntington's Library.

162. HENNEPIN (LOUIS). A New Discovery of a Vast Country in America, Extending above Four Thousand Miles, between New France and New Mexico . . . . . with a Continuation, Giving an Account of the Attempts of the Sieur De la Salle upon the Mines of St. Barbe, &c. Engraved frontispiece, 2 folding maps and 6 folding plates. 8vo, old panel calf (cracked, maps and plates lightly foxed).

Lond.: Printed for M. Bentley, J. Tonson,/H. Bonwick, T. Goodwin, and S. Manship, 1698.

The "Tonson" issue of the FIRST ENGLISH EDITION. Known as such from the ending of the first line of the imprint. The plates in the "Continuation" are superior to those in the "Bon" edition, and all but one have the engraver's name, M. Vander Gucht, these plates are also reversed from those of the "Bon" issue. The maps, however, are the same in both.

From Mr. Huntington's Library.

163. [HICKERINGILL (EDMOND).] Jamaica Viewed: with All the Ports, Harbours, and their several Soundings, Towns, and Settlements thereunto belonging. Together, With the nature of it's Climate, &c. By E. H. Folding map. Small 8vo, original marbled boards, EDGES ENTIRELY UNCUT ("wth ye mapp" written on title in contemporary hand).

Lond.: Printed for John Williams, 1661

FIRST EDITION. Fine copy, in original binding as published, and containing the very scarce folding map.

164. [HIGGINSON (FRANCIS).] New Englands Plantation. or, a Short and True Description of the Commodities and Discommodities of that Countrey. Written by a reuerend Diuine now there resident. Small 4to, full brown levant morocco, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery (last original blank leaf wanting).

Lond.: Printed by T. C. and R. C. for Michael Sparke, 1630

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE ORIGINAL EDITION. Apparently not in Huth or Livingston. Of this book three editions were issued the same year, all of which are to be found in the Lenox Library. The Narrative covers the period from July to September, 1629. The Second Edition had some new matter added. Both the Second and Third Editions have the author's name, "Mr. Higgeson," on the title-page.

The E. D. Church copy, in exceptionally fine, clean state.

165. HOOKE (WILLIAM). New Englands Sence, of Old-England and Irelands Sorrowes. A Sermon Preached upon a day of generall Humiliation in the Churches of New-England. In the behalfe of Old-England and Irelands Sad condition. Small 4to, full brown crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt inside border, gilt edges by the Club Bindery.

Lond.: Printed by John Rothwell, 1645

FIRST EDITION, very rare. Fine copy with unusually large margins. Although not printed till 1645, it is now generally believed that this very early New England Fast Sermon was preached on April 14, 1642.

The E. D. Church copy, with the bookplate.

166. HUBBARD (WILLIAM). A Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians in New-England, from the first plating thereof in the year 1607, to this present year 1677. To which is added a Discourse about the Warre with the Pequods in the year 1637. Folding map. Small 4to, original sheep, in fine state of preservation.

Boston: Printed by John Foster, in the year 1677

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the errors in pagination, only 10 lines of errata on last page, and License leaf dated "Boston, March 29, 1677." The map of New England is the original Boston "White Hills" issue, THE FIRST MAP ENGRAVING IN AMERICA, and is a very beautiful, crisp specimen. The "Narrative" itself is an unsually fine, large copy, with wide margins, being 7 9/16 by 5 11/16 inches, its only defects being that it lacks the blank leaf N4 and has very small pieces torn from 2 blank corners. Of the preliminary contributions in verse, the first is believed to be by John Sherman, the other by Benjamin Tompson, one of the earliest native American poets.

INSERTED WITH THE "NARRATIVE" is the almost equally scarce "Happiness of a People," by the same author, Boston, Printed by John Foster, 1676. This sermon is of great bibliographical interest, being one of the earliest books printed in Boston, where the first press was installed that year. American books prior to 1676 were printed at Cambridge.

Hubbard was a man distinguished in a period of great bigotry for his moderation and liberal-mindedness. In writing he far surpassed his contemporaries and his "Indian Wars" have always been regarded by historians as authoritative. This copy has an inscription in a contemporary hand, "Ffor the Right Honnorable Sr. Robert Southwell," and a marginal note in a like hand relating to Chief Miantonimoh, signed "William Harris of Patuxet."

(See Illustration.)

167. HUBBARD (WILLIAM). The Present State of New-England. Being a Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians in New-England, from  1607 to the Present Year 1677. HUBBARD'S INDIAN WARS.
Boston, 1677.
(See No. 166.)

27, 1677. The map has several places marked with a printed number, and many of these have been identified with names written in ink by a very early hand. On the first (blank) page is the contemporary signature, "Richard Wiyth, his book, cost 6 pound," and below in the same hand is

"War there is and wars will be
Until the end of days
All never did nor will agre
But still will mischief rais."

168. HULSIUS (LEVINUS). Vera historia, Admirandae Cuiusdam navigationis, quam Huldericus Schmidel, ab Anno 1534 usque ad annum 1554 in Americam vel novum Mundum. Vignette title, coat-of-arms, copper-plate portrait and 15 plates; and folding map in two sections bound at end of volume (small portions of 5 margins and margin of one map very neatly restored); and—Brevis & admiranda descriptio Regni Guianae, auri abundantissimi, in America, 1564, 1595, & 1596. Per  Dn. Gualtherum Raleghe. 6 copper-plates. 2 vols in one, small 4to, full calf, gilt tooled, gilt edges.

Noribergae. Impensis Levini Hulsij, 1599

LATIN EDITIONS OF HULSIUS, PARTS IV. AND V. (ALL SO PUBLISHED) apparently printed with the object of finding a market out of Germany. The Latin editions were abandoned after the issue of these two. The plates for both parts are bound in Part IV, and there is only one copy of the map, which should appear in duplicate.

Part IV. contains an account of the voyage of Ulrich Schmidel of Straubing to Brazil and the Rio de la Plata, in 1534-54; Part V. is an abridgement of Sir Walter Raleigh's account of Guiana.

169. JAMES (THOMAS). The Strange and Dangerous Voyage of Captaine Thomas Iames, in his intended Discovery of the Northwest Passage into the South Sea. WITH THE VERY RARE ORIGINAL FOLDED MAP, having an inset portrait of the author. Small 4to, full brown pigskin, gilt back and broad side borders, inside dentelles, gilt edges.

Lond.: Printed by John Legatt for John Partridge, 1633

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION, PARTICULARLY SCARCE WITH THE ORIGINAL MAP, which is often wanting. In the present copy, the title has been renewed on the inner margin; a very small repair has been made in the lower margin, and there are two small rust-holes, one on sig ¶3, and the other on page 85. Wants the 2 blank leaves.

In the Lefferts and the Stevens-Church copies, the final "aduise," occupying the last 10 pages, is signed "X.Z." In the present copy it bears THE CORRECT NAME OF ITS AUTHOR William Watts, thus agreeing with the title "W. W."

James, a Bristol man of Welsh origin, started in May, 1631, and returned in September, 1632, having met Luke Foxe somewhere in Baffin's Bay. His record is full of hardships and perils, and is said to have supplied Coleridge with some of the material for his "Ancient Mariner." As a good Welshman, James named the region south of Hudson's Bay, New South Wales, while Foxe, who was from Hull, called it New Yorkshire.

The author has been censured for the lack of geographical information contained in the book, but the map is assuredly free from any such blame, for it contains a singularly correct delineation of the high latitudes in which Hudson, Baffin, James, and Foxe pursued their search for the Northwest passage.

170. JAMES (THOMAS). The Strange and Dangerous Voyage of Captaine Thomas James, in his intended Discouery of the Northwest Passage into the South Sea. With an Appendix concerning Longitude, by Master Henry Gellibrand and An Aduice concerning the Philosophy of these late Discoueryes, By W. W. Folding copper map, with portrait of the author in corner. Small 4to, full green morocco, gilt tooled inside and out, gilt edges, by Bedford (map very neatly repaired at one margin).

Lond.: Printed by John Legatt, 1633

THE RARE FIRST EDITION, clean and crisp, with wide margins, fine copy of the scarce folding map, and both of the original blank leaves. Size, 7⅛ by 5½ inches, being much larger than the Church copy.

The explorations related here were mostly of the southwestern part of Hudson Bay, where the crew wintered on Charlton Island. The "Aduise" called for on the title and subscribed in text "Yours, X.Z." was written by William Watts.

171. [JOHNSON (ROBERT).] Nova Britannia. Offering Most Excellent fruites by Planting in Virginia. Exciting all such as be well affected to further the same. Woodcut of a ship on title. Small 4to, boards, morocco back (title and two next leaves soiled and some leaves short, three head-lines cut into, blank leaf A wanting).

Lond.: Printed for Samuel Macham, 1609

FIRST EDITION, PRINTED IN BLACK LETTER. ONE OF THE RAREST OF THE EARLY HISTORICAL TRACTS RELATING TO VIRGINIA. The Griswold-Ives-Lefferts copy had the date cut into, and that such fastidious collectors as they should have been compelled to accept a book with that defect is evidence of its EXTREME RARITY.

Accompanying the volume is a portion of another copy (B-d4, E2 and E3). Stained and some head-lines cut into. This fragment is interesting as it possesses a variation in sig. D4, where the matter on the page is treated in three paragraphs, while in the volume above described there are only two.

From Mr. Huntington's Library.

172. [JOHNSON (ROBERT).] The New Life of Virginia: Declaring the former successe and present estate of that plantation, being the second part of Nova Britannia. Published by the authoritie of His Majesties Counsell in Virginea. Small 4to, full crushed green levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt top, UNCUT, with the Miller arms on covers, by F. Bedford (lacks the blank leaf Ai, last leaf soiled and margins repaired).

Lond.: Imprinted by Felix Kyngston for William Welby, 1612.

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION, EXCEEDING IN RARITY THE FIRST PART, "Nova Britannia." The Lefferts copy, described as "very tall and fine," was trimmed. THE PRESENT COPY IS IN ITS ORIGINAL UNCUT CONDITION, measures 7⅞ x 6 inches, AND IS POSSIBLY THE LARGEST COPY EXTANT.

173. JOSSELYN (JOHN). New Englands Rarities Discovered: in Birds, Beasts, Fishes, Serpents, and Plants of that Country. Together with the Physical and Chyrurgical Remedies wherewith the Natives constantly use to Cure their Distempers, Wounds, and Sores. Lond.: Printed for G. Widdowes, 1672

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the printer's device (cut of a dragon) on leaf preceding the title (writing on the recto of this leaf).

THIS IS THE EARLIEST WORK ON THE NATURAL HISTORY OF NEW ENGLAND.

An exceptionally fine, crisp copy, with the autograph of Narcissus Luttrell, 1676, on title. The first two words of the title have been underscored, and there is a slight paper defect in the margin of B7. The folding plate has a small repair.

174. JOSSELYN (JOHN). An Account of Two Voyages to New England wherein you have the setting out of a Ship, with the charges; the prices of all necessaries for furnishing a Planter and his Family . . . . with . . . . Chronological Observations of America, from the year of the world to the year of Christ, 1673. Small 8vo, full old calf (some leaves a little foxed). Lond.: Printed for Giles Widdows, 1674

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the leaf of License preceding the title having on recto the device of the printer; also, the RARE LEAF OF ERRATA (A4). There is a very slight tear in the margin of (A1), and two or three of the page numbers have been cut into. Pages 216-218 have no page numbers, and 219 is numbered 223, thus agreeing with the Church collation.

Josselyn first visited America in 1638-39. He came a second time and stayed from 1663 to 1671, when he returned to England and wrote this book. The second portion of the book, the "Chronological Observations," is most interesting, and on the title page it was evidently the intention to have inserted a date after "From the year of the world," as a blank space appears.

175. JOUTEL (M.). A Journal of the Last Voyage Perform's by Monsr. de la Sale, to the Gulph of Mexico, To find out the Mouth of the Missisipi River. Containing An Account of the Settlements he endeavour'd to make * * *, his unfortunate Death, &c. Folding map with view of Niagara Falls in corner (upper margins very slighty stained). 8vo, original blue wrappers, uncut and unopened (cover slightly worn). Lond. 1714

THE RARE FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, with the original map and with pagination skipping 93-4. The finest known account of La Salle's final voyage, and probably unique in this condition.

176. KEITH (GEORGE). The Presbyterian and Independent Visible Churches in New-England and else-where, brought to the Test . . . With a Call and Warning from the Lord to the People of Boston and New-England to Repent, &c. Small 8vo, full polished blue calf, gilt dentelle border, gilt back, gilt edges, by W. Lond.: Printed by Joseph Downing for Brab. Aylmer, 1706

A LARGE AND FINE COPY OF THE RARE FIRST EDITION, with the autograph of W. Musgrave on verso of title.

The author is the same person who some years before defended the Quakers against Increase and Cotton Mather, but afterwards turned against them and became a Baptist.

178. KEYMIS (LAWRENCE). A Relation of the Second Voyage to Guiana. Performed and written in the yeare 1596. By Lawrence Keymis, Gent. Small 4to, full stamped calf (name on title, a few leaves slightly stained).

London: by Thomas Dawson, dwelling at the three Cranes in the Vintree, 1596.

FIRST EDITION of this extremely rare and interesting work. Dedicated to Sir Walter Raleigh, whose arms are on verso of title. The author accompanied Raleigh on his first voyage in 1595, and the latter being unable to go the next year sent Keymis to continue the explorations. In a later voyage, which resulted from that narrated here, Keymis failed in a task set him by Raleigh and, in consequence of his master's reproaches, committed suicide in his cabin.

179. [KNOX (WILLIAM).] The Controversy between Great-Britain and her Colonies Reviewed; the Several Pleas of the Colonies, in Support of their Right to All the Liberties and Privileges of British Subjects, and to Exemption from the Legislative Authority of Parliament, Stated and Considered, Etc. 8vo, contemporary sprinkled calf (imprint cut from title). [Boston: Printed by Mein and Fleming, 1769]

Attributed also to Mr. Whately, M. P., and to John Mein, the printer and bookseller. William Knox was Under Secretary for American Affairs, and probably was assisted in its preparation by George Grenville. For publishing this, and other pieces inimical to the interests of the Colonies, John Hancock is said to have bought up Mein's debts upon his return to England, and by making an unexpected demand upon him for their payment, which he could not meet, forced him into bankruptcy and into Fleet prison.

This Boston edition is very rare; the only records of it are in the collections of public libraries and museums.

180. LA BARRE (LE FEBVRE DE). Description de la France Éqvinoctiale, cy-devant appellée Gvyanne, et par les Espagnols El Dorado, nouuellement remise sous l'obeïssance du Roy. THE EXTREMELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, of which the Church catalogue locates only two other copies.

The pamphlet was written in answer to Leonard Strong's "Babylon's Fall in Maryland," published the same year. Strong was one of the leading Puritans at Providence, and his pamphlet was written in a partisan spirit. The present work contains a letter from Gov. Stone's wife to Lord Baltimore, in which she describes the conduct of the Puritans and their treatment of her husband. Langford received from Lord Baltimore a gift of fifteen hundred acres of land in Maryland as a reward for writing this work.

A Paris: Chez Edme Pepingve, 1654

FIRST EDITION. This is an account of an expedition sent out under De Roiville in 1651. The greater part of the colonists, seven hundred or eight hundred in number, perished in the space of fifteen months from hunger and the fury of the Indians.

187. LAS CASAS (BARTHOLOME DE). Tratado cõpro batorio del Imperio soberano y principado universal que los Reyes de Castilla y Leon tienan sobre las indias; compuesto por el obispo don fray Bartholome d las Casas, o Casaus de la orden a Sancto Domingo. [Colophon Sevilla]: Sebastia Trugillo, 1553

THE FIRST EDITION of the Ninth Treatise, with 80 leaves, the second issue having 84 leaves. At the bottom of sigs. E5 and F6, the last two lines of each page have been reprinted and pasted over the original printing, a feature not mentioned by Field, Sabin, or other authorities consulted. There is a small name stamp on the title, Av has been mended, and a contemporary hand has scored some passages and entered notes on several margins.

This is the largest of the Las Casas treatises, and was written to prove the sovereignty and universal dominion which the Kings of Castella and Leon had over the Indians. An unusually crisp copy.

188. LAS CASAS (BARTHOLOME DE). The Spanish Colonie; or, Briefe Chronicle of the Acts and gestes of the Spaniardes in the West Indies, called the newe World. And now first translated into english, by M. M. S. Small 4to, old straight-grain morocco (rubbed), gilt edged (title a little soiled, the following leaf slightly torn on margin, and manuscript notes on several margins). Title printed within woodcut border by Dawson, and sig. of "F. Osb." written thereon.

Imprinted at London for William Brome, 1583

UNKNOWN TO HERBERT, AND A BOOK WHICH IN ANY CONDITION IS EXCESSIVELY RARE. IT IS THE FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH, and is translated not from the Spanish, but from the French version of Jacques de Miggrode, published first in 1579. In the heading of "To the Reader," this name is misspelled, and we are informed that the book was "faithfully translated by James Alligrodo, to serve as a President and warning to the xii Provinces of the lowe Countries." The translation includes the whole of Tracts I and II, printed in BLACK LETTER, and parts of Nos. III and IV, printed in Roman. One chapter of the first part of the book tells "of the Provinces of the firme lande, or quarter that is called Florida," and of the persecutions there.

The Barlow copy, which resold in the Ives sale and again in the Lefferts sale, had the last leaf, and possibly the next to the last leaf in facsimile.

THE PRESENT COPY IS PERFECT, and ranks better than the Crane copy, which had several leaves extended in the corners.

189. LAS CASAS (BARTHOLOME DE). Narratio Regionum Indicarum per Hispanos quosdam devastatarum verissima: prius quidem per Episcopum Bartholemaeum Casaum, natione Hispanum Hispanicè Conscripta, & Anno 1551, Hispali, Hispanicè, Anno vero hoc 1598. Latinè excusa.

Engraved title and 17 copper-plate engravings by L. and Th. De Bry, in brilliant original impressions. Small 4to, full brown morocco extra, inside dentelles, gilt edges, with the Miller arms and monogram, by Bedford.

Francofurti: Sumptibus Theodori de Bry & Ioannis Saurii typis 1598.

VERY FINE COPY of the most beautiful edition of Las Casas, which, as Sabin points out, "is much sought for in consequence of the beauty of the first impressions of the plates."

This is the FIRST LATIN TRANSLATION of Las Casas's "Breuissima relacion," and three others, preceded by a brief introduction, mainly a quotation from Lipsius, commenting on the Spanish atrocities.

This is the FIRST EDITION CONTAINING THE FAMOUS SERIES OF PLATES, all illustrating the cruelties practiced upon the Indians by the Spaniards, as related by Las Casas. They are, of course, imaginary, the artist never having been in America. The present copy is larger than is usually met with, measuring 7⅞ x 6⅛ inches. Three small marginal defects have been skilfully repaired by the binder.

190. LAS CASAS (BARTHOLOME DE). The Tears of the Indians; being An Historical and true Account of the Cruel Massacres and Slaughters of above Twenty Millions of innocent People Committed by the Spaniards in the Islands of Hispaniola, Cuba, Jamaica, etc., As also, in the Continent of Mexico, Peru, & other Places of the West Indies, To the total destruction of those Countries. (Lacks the folding plate, but 4 of the compartments into which the plate is divided are laid in). 8vo, original calf (shaken).

Lond.: Printed by J. C. for Nath. Brook, 1656

THE ORIGINAL EDITION OF THE FIRST ENGLISH TRANSLATION by J. P., i.e. John Phillips, a nephew of John Milton. THE WORK IS RARE.

The numbers 89-96 are omitted in the pagination, but the signatures are correct, and a comparison of the text with that of the original edition shows that this edition is complete. The leaf b7 has the catchword "The" whereas the first word on the following leaf (B) is "Tears." The same is true of the copy collated by Hazlitt (Collections and Notes, 1887, p. 135), and is also true of the E. D. Church copy, which would rather indicate that the work is complete without this leaf. At the end is the rare half-title, not mentioned by Stevens in his "Nuggets," nor in Hazlitt's "Collections and Notes." With autograph of Henry Bradshawe on title-page.

191. LAWSON (JOHN). A New Voyage to Carolina; Containing the Exact Description and Natural History of that Country: Together with the Present State thereof. And a Journal of a Thousand Miles Travel'd thro' several Nations of Indians. Giving a particular Account of their Customs, Manners, etc. With the very rare plate of animals (but lacking the map). Small 4to, old half calf and boards (broken, autograph of W. Wusgrave on verso of title and on one chapter heading). Lond.: Printed in the Year 1709

THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE FIRST EDITION. The Journal occupies pp. 6-60; Description of North Carolina, pp. 61-168; Account of the Indians of North Carolina, pp. 169-238; Charters of North Carolina,, 239-258. At the end is the very rare leaf of advertisement.

This work was issued in 1711 as a part of Stevens's Voyages, and passed through several editions at later dates, the fourth edition, published in Dublin in 1737, being attributed on the title-page to John Brickel. Field gives a long note to the work in his bibliography, concluding with the statement: "Neither of the first three editions of Lawson's work is often found complete with the map and animal plate."

192. LECHFORD (JOHN). Plain Dealing; or, Newes from New England. A Short View of New-Englands present Government, both Ecclesiasticall and Civil, compared with the anciently-received and established Government of England, in some materiall points; fit for the gravest consideration in these times. Small 4to, boards, parchment back, UNCUT (Brit. Mus. sale stamp on verso of title, and sig. G 3 torn across).

Lond.: Printed by W. E. and I. G. for Nath. Butter, 1642

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. On page 20 is a cut-in note beginning: "Whereas in England every Sunday are read in publique, Chapters and Psalmes in every Church, besides the eleven or twelve Commandements, Epistle and Gospell, the Creed and other good formes and catechisings," . . . The curious error in this note has been corrected, in this copy, by obliterating the words "eleven or twelve" with a pen.

This is one of the most interesting and authentic of the early narratives relating to the colony, being full of valuable information respecting the manners and customs of the inhabitants. It was reissued in 1644 as "New England's Advice to Old England." On the title-page of the present copy has been written "Collated & perf." and other library memo.

UNCUT COPIES ARE MOST UNUSUAL, this one measuring 8 x 6⅛ inches.

193. LEDERER (JOHN). The Discoveries of John Lederer. in Three several Marches from Virginia, To the West of Carolina, and other parts of the Continent: Begun in March 1669, and ended in September 1670. Together with a General Map of the whole Territory which he traversed. By Sir William Talbot Baronet. Original map in fine impression, with margins intact. Small 4to, boards, calf back, uncut.

Lond.: Printed by J. C. for Samuel Heyrick, 1672

COPIES OF THIS ORIGINAL EDITION, particularly in uncut condition and with the original map, are rare. In the present copy, A i, containing the license, is wanting, and the leaf B i is split half across.

The work contains a brief account of the North American Continent, the Manners and Customs of the Indians of Carolina and Virginia, details of the three expeditions, including the penetration to the top of the Apalatoean mountains.

194. LE HERMITE (ADMIRAL JAQUIS). A True Relation of the Fleete which went under the Admirall Jaquis Le Hermite through the Straights of Magellane towards the Coasts of Peru, and the Towne of Lima in the West-Indies. With a Letter containing the present State of Castile in Peru . . . . . Written by a Well-willer of the Common-wealth. Small 4to, boards, calf back, morocco corners.

Lond.: Printed for Mercurius Britannicus. 1625

In clean, perfect state. VERY RARE. Sabin apparently was unable to locate a copy. The main portion of the work is given up to a Discourse "which showeth by cleare and strong Arguments how that it was both necessary and profitable for the United Prouinces to erect a West-India Company."

195. LE PAGE DU PRATZ (M.). The History of Louisiana; or, of the Western Parts of Virginia and Carolina; containing a Description of the Countries that lye on both Sides of the River Missisipi: With an Account of the Settlements, Inhabitants, Soil, Climate, and Products. Translated from the French. Two folding maps. 2 vols. 12mo, old sprinkled calf.

Lond.: Printed for T. Becket and P. A. De Hondt, 1763

The Rare First English Translation. A fine, crisp copy, with the maps in perfect condition. From this work historians have derived much of their knowledge of the Natchez and other Mississippi tribes of Indians, the author having resided in Louisiana fifteen years; hence his observations are considered of the utmost authenticity.

196. LERY (JEAN DE). Histoire d'vn Voyage fait en la Terre dv Bresil, avtrement dite Amerique. A La Rochelle: Pour Antoine Chuppin, 1578

FIRST EDITION, with the very rare imprint La Rochelle, which is not found on most of the copies. Brunet says: "Edition trés rare de cette interesante relation." Lery went out in 1557 to Brazil, under Villegagnon, with the Huguenot expedition organized by Coligny. He corrects what he calls the falsehoods and errors of Thevet.

The fine E. D. Church copy, with his bookplate.

197. LERY (JEAN DE). Historia Navigationis in Brasiliam, quae et America dicitur, qua describitur autoris navigatio, quae que in mari vidit memoriae prodenda: Villagagnonis in America gesta: Brasiliensium victus et mores, etc.

[Genevae]: Excudebat Eustathius Vignon, 1586

THE VERY RARE LATIN TRANSLATION, more valuable than the French original, as containing the passages suppressed in that edition. The folding plate mentioned above is seldom found. Among other things, the author gives musical notes to show the intonation of the Caraibs, etc. The preface contains a most interesting letter written to Calvin by Villegagnon, the French Admiral who safely conducted Mary, Queen of Scotland, to Brittany. The author was a Protestant minister who went to Brazil to establish a Colony of Huguenots, but the scheme failed, and he returned to France and published this book.

198. LERY (JEAN DE). Histoire d'vn Voyage fait en la Terre dv Bresil, avtrement dite Amerique. Contenant la nauigation, & choses remarquables, veuës par l'aucteur: Le comportement de Villegagnon, en ce païs là. 200. LESCARBOT (MARC). Nova Francia; Or the Description of that part of New France, which is one continent with Virginia. Described in the three late Voyages and Plantation made by Monsieur de Monts, Monsieur du Pont-Graué, and Monsieur de Poutrincourt, into the countries called by the Frenchmen La Cadie, lying to the Southwest of Cape Breton. Translated out of the French into English by P. E(rondelle). Small 4to, half maroon levant morocco, gilt back, burnished gilt edges, by David (wants the original preliminary blank leaf, corner of R4 has been repaired, margin and some of the text of Kk3 restored).

Londini: Imponsis Georgii Bishop, 1609

THE FIRST ENGLISH EDITION. This is a translation of the fourth and sixth books of the first edition of Lescarbot, Paris, 1609, although the author's name is nowhere mentioned in the translation. The translator, Peter Erondelle, or Arundell, was a French schoolmaster in London, who was afterwards a stockholder in the Virginia Company. In his "Epistle" he says: "The whole volume of the Navigations of the French-nation into the West Indies (comprised in three books) was brought to me to be translated by Mr. Richard Hakluyt, a man who for his worthy and profitable labours, is well known to most men of his worth, not onely of this kingdome, but also of forrain parts: and by him this part was selected and chosen from the whole worke, for the particular use of this Nation."

Copies occur without the date on the title, the work having been re-issued with a new title-page bearing the imprint of Andrew Hebb. THIS DATED EDITION IS CONSIDERABLY THE RARER.

The E. D. Church copy, with his bookplate.

201. LINSCHOTEN (JOHN HUIGHEN VAN). His Discours of Voyages into ye Easte and West Indies; Devided into foure Bookes (translated out of Dutch by W. P.) Beckit and Raynald Elstracke.* Folio, full crimson levant morocco, emblematic tooled back in compartments, gilt border in style of Derome, with emblems, inside dentelles, gilt edges on the rough, by Bradstreet's.

Printed at London by John Wolfe, 1598

A FINE COPY OF THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, with all the genuine maps and plates. The first map, "Typus Orbis Terrarum," being cut down at top and bottom. Some of the leaves are time-stained.

"This inestimable book, a treasure of all the knowledge and learning relating to the East and West Indies and the navigation thither, at the end of the 16th century, has been in the highest esteem for nearly a century," says Muller, "and was given to each ship sailing to India, as a log-book. Hence the many editions (6 in Dutch, 3 in French, 1 in Latin). This is also the explanation why fine copies, especially with all the maps and plates, are so very rare."

This English Translation is by William Philip, and is rarely found in good condition.

From the Church collection, with his bookplate by French.

202. LLOYD (SUSETTE HARRIET). Sketches of Bermuda. With map and plates. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original cloth, uncut (slight tear in margin of one leaf).

Besides the first three Decades of Peter Martyr it contains a translation of that Author's paper on the recently discovered Islands, first printed in 1521 to supply the loss of Cortes' First Relation. It also contains the Bull of Pope Alexander (in Latin and English) dividing the world between Spain and Portugal; as well as translations of the most important papers pertaining to maritime discovery, and the new world, of Ziegler, Paulus Jovius, Vespucci, Maximilianus Transylvanus, Oviedo, Gomara, Andreas de Corsali," etc., etc.

London: Printed for Thomas Adams, 1612

THE FIRST COMPLETE EDITION OF PETER MARTYR'S "DECADES" IN ENGLISH. Three Decades were translated by Richard Eden and printed in 1555. It was revised, probably by Eden himself, and edited and published by Richard Willes in 1577, after Eden's death. This edition contained a translation of four decades, and an abridgment of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th decades. Then in 1612, when the interest in Western voyages was at its height in England, Michael Lok, or Lock, "by paineful Trauaile" translated the full number of Decades, the present copy.

THIS COMPLETE EDITION IS VERY RARE, particularly in such fine condition as is this copy (lacking only the preliminary blank leaf Ai).

The Henry Stevens-E. D. Church copy.

210. MASON (JOHN). A Briefe Discourse of the New-found-land, with the situation, temperature, and commodities thereof, inciting our Nation to goe forward in that hopefull plantation begunne. 7 leaves unnumbered. Small 4to, full calf (title soiled). Edinburgh: Printed by Andro Hart

THE EXTREMELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION. This work was reprinted by the Bannatyne Club and also by the Prince Society; evidence of its rarity. Laing, who edited the earlier reprint, KNEW OF BUT THREE COPIES. Not in Lowndes, Huth, or Livingston.

211. MATHER (COTTON). The Wonders of the Invisible World: Being an Account of the Tryals of Several Witches, lately Executed in New-England: And of several remarkable Curiosities therein Occurring. Small 4to, half olive morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere.

Printed first, at Boston in New-England; and Reprinted at London, for John Dunton, at the Raven in the Poultry, 1693.

THE FIRST LONDON EDITION. With the rare half-title and page of Imprimatur, dated Dec. 23, 1692. A clean copy, but some head and lower lines cut into.

There were three editions published in London, all bearing this same date, but this is the genuine First, and only complete London edition. There are several breaks in pagination, which is due no doubt to the Boston publisher sending portions of the copy to two or more printers in his desire to have the work appear in London as speedily as possible. This supposition is borne out by the fact that of seven errors which appear in the Boston edition only two are corrected.

212. [MATHER (COTTON).] Pietas in Patriam. The Life of His Excellency Sir William Phips, Knt, late Captain General and Governour in Chief of the Massachuset-Bay, New England, containing the Memorable Changes undergone, and Actions performed by him, written by one intimately acquainted with him. Small 8vo, original sheep.

Lond.: Printed by Sam. Bridge in Austin-Friers for Nath. Hillier in Leadenhall Street, 1697.

THE RARE FIRST EDITION, with all the six preliminary leaves and the scarce leaf of advertisements at end. Contains also the Elegy, occupying 3 leaves.

213. MATHER (COTTON). Memorable Providences, relating to Witchcrafts and Possessions. Small 12mo, old polished calf, blind tooling.

Printed at Boston in New-England, and Reprinted at Edinburgh by the Heirs and Successors of Andrew Anderson, 1697

THE RARE EDINBURGH REPRINT of the Boston edition, which is LESS FREQUENTLY MET WITH THAN THE ORIGINAL EDITION.

A remarkable history of the strange witchcrafts and possessions in New England. The title is torn across the centre and some head-lines are cut into. The last three lines on p. 100 and pp. 101-102 are printed in smaller type than the rest of the book in order to get the text within the last two leaves.

214. MATHER (COTTON). Magnalia Christi Americana: or, The Ecclesiastical History of New England, from Its First Planting in the Year 1620, unto the Year of our Lord, 1698. In Seven Books. Beautiful copy of the scarce folding map. Folio, original panel calf (rebacked, double sheet transposed (books 1-2), 1 leaf a little torn into, few margins stained).

London: Printed for Thomas Parkhurst, 1702

THE EXTREMELY SCARCE LARGE PAPER FIRST EDITION, of which few copies have appeared. Size of leaf, 14⅛ x 8⅞ inches. This is the first collected edition of an American author, one who had rare opportunities for consulting documents, many of which are now lost. The work is a Civil and Ecclesiastical history, and contains many biographical sketches of people eminent in early America. Has the leaf at end of books printed for Thomas Parkhurst.

ROBERT SOUTHEY'S COPY, with his autograph signature on title and having marginal notes in his hand on several pages, apparently made in preparation of his article on "Magnalia Christi" in the "Quarterly Review." There are also marginal notes in the autograph of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, some being signed with initials, "S. T. C." These notes by both authors appear in all on 16 pages, extending from a brief line to 100 words or over in some places, and contain some very bitter strictures on witch hunting, and a quatrain initialled by Coleridge,

"Why at Tom Maule dost fret and foam?
Thine own book's but a mauling Tome.
Add to thy name an R: for rather
A Mauler art thou than a Mather."

215. MATHER (COTTON). Parentator. Memoirs of Remarkables in the Life and the Death of the Ever-Memorable Dr. Increase Mather. Who Expired, August 23, 1723. En- graved portrait "Crescentius Mather," by I Sturt. Small 8vo, original calf (repaired, small hole on p. 3).

Bost.: Printed by B. Green, for Nathaniel Belknap, 1724

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, IN THE ORIGINAL BINDING, and in VERY CRISP STATE.

Chapter xxxiv (pp. 233-239), entitled "Dead Abel, yet Speaking," contains a list of Increase Mather's works arranged by dates. This list contains 88 titles, "without any mention of the Learned and Useful Praefaces, which the Publishers of many Books Obtained from him, as a Beautiful Porch unto them; and which Collected would make a considerable Volume."

216. MATHER (COTTON). Manuductio ad Ministerium: Directions for a Candidate of the Ministry. Wherein, First, a Right Foundation is laid for his Future Improvements; etc. Small 8vo, full brown crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt back, gilt inside borders, gilt edges, by F. Bedford (wants half-title). Bost.: Printed for Thomas Hancock, 1726

Fine copy of the second issue of the FIRST EDITION. With the "Advertisement" on page 150, which does not appear in the first issue, announcing the forthcoming work by the same author, "Ratio Disciplinae Fratrum Novanglorum." Neither Sabin nor Evans notes this edition, and copies have seldom appeared.

217. MATHER (INCREASE). A Briefe History of the Warr with the Indians in New England, (From June 14, 1675, when the First Englishman was murdered by the Indians, to August 12, 1676 when Philip, alias Metacomet, the principal Author and Beginner of the Warr, was slain. . . . . Together with a Serious Exhortation to the Inhabitants of that Land. Small 4to, half levant morocco (some headlines cut into).

Bost.: Printed and Sold by John Foster, 1676

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION. The "Serious Exhortation" called for on the title does not occur in this copy. Although generally bound with the "History" it was probably an independent issue, containing separate pagination and signatures.

This work is so rare that Sabin, when cataloguing the Menzies Library, said that Lowndes did not mention the New England edition. "Perhaps no copy of it exists."

From Mr. Huntington's Library.

218. MATHER (INCREASE). A Brief History of the War with the Indians in New England. From June 24. 1675. (When the first Englishman was Murdered by the Indians) to August 12. 1676. when Philip, alias Metacomet, the principal Author and Beginner of the War, was slain. Small 4to, boards, morocco back, uncut (a few top margins slightly wormed). Lond.: Printed for Richard Chiswell, 1676

THE FIRST LONDON EDITION. VERY RARE. Although the title calls for a second part ("Serious Exhortation"), it did not appear in this edition. The title-page of the Boston edition was probably copied literally without reference to the fact that it called for another work.

This is a history of King Philip's War, beginning with the story of the murder of the first Englishman by the Indians, June 24, 1675, and continuing it to the death of Philip, August 12, 1676. It was written in answer to Wharton's New England's Present Sufferings, in which the author had claimed that the Indian War was in retribution for the sufferings which the Quakers had endured at the hands of the Puritans.

A LARGE COPY, measuring 8⅜ x 6¼ inches.

VERY RARE FIRST EDITION. This appears to be one of the scarcest of Mather's Tracts, apparently not having been reprinted in London. In the Preface, the author speaking of the Hubbard Narrative says: "Nevertheless it hath been thought needfull to publish this; Considering that most of the things here insisted on, are not so much as once taken notice of in that Narrative. And although the Pequot war be therein described . . . . it is not so fully done as is here to be seen."

In the present edition the letter of Vesputius commences at chapter 114 on the verso of n8.

Cambridge: Printed by S. G. and M. J. for John Usher of Boston, 1669.

THE ORIGINAL EDITION. OF THE UTMOST RARITY, and aside from the natural time-stains, AN EXCEPTIONALLY DESIRABLE, CRISP COPY.

This work, which was compiled principally from the Journals of William Bradford and Thomas Winslow, is not only the first historical work issued from the Massachusetts press, BUT IS THE FIRST HISTORICAL BOOK PRINTED IN AMERICA.

The Voyage of the Mayflower is given in detail, as also is the story of the landing and first settlement of the Pilgrims.

The present copy is entirely perfect, containing not only the leaf "To the Reader" with recto blank, but also the 5 leaves of "Chronological Table" at the end, which is not found in all copies.

In all probability this is not only the GENUINE ORIGINAL EDITION, but the ONLY 1669 edition, as no copy of an English edition of this date has been seen, and as late as 1675 Richard Chiswell, for whom the English edition was supposed to have been printed, stated that the copies of the book he then had for sale were "printed in Cambridge in New England."

228. MORTON (THOMAS). New English Canaan; or, New Canaan. Containing an Abstract of New England. Composed in three Bookes. Small 4to, boards, morocco back (writing and label on title, a slight repair to A2, some corners restored, and small tears in 2 margins).

Printed at Amsterdam by Jacob Frederick Stam, 1637

THE FIRST EDITION. A BOOK OF SUCH EXTREME RARITY that Frederik Muller, the eminent bookseller of Amsterdam, remarks "Although this book is printed in my native place, Amsterdam, I have never seen or heard of it here." Sabin, in the Menzies catalogue, says: "We know of only one other copy in the United States."

The work is interspersed with poems, one being by Ben Jonson in honor of the "Baccanall Triumphe of the Nine Worthies of New Canaan."

The three books treat of: The Manners and customs of the Natives; The Natural endowments of the Country; What people are planted there, their Tenents and practice of their Church, etc.

The author, in consequence of his habits, hilarious conduct, and association with the Indians, whom he supplied with arms, was sent out of the colony as a prisoner. He returned after the appearance of this work and was imprisoned in Boston for a year, ostensibly on account of the libel it promulgated against the colonies.

229. [MOURT (G.).] A Relation or Journall of the Beginning and Proceedings of the English Plantation setled at Plimoth in New England, by certaine English Adventurers both Merchants and others. THE EXCESSIVELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION.

THIS WORK, WHICH MUST ALWAYS BE CONSIDERED AS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT RELATING TO THE EARLY DAYS OF THE COLONISTS AT PLYMOUTH, contains an almost daily journal for the first twelve months, including accounts of "A Journey to Packanokik, the habitation of the Great King Massasoyt"; "A Voyage made by ten of our Men to the Kingdome of Nauset, to seeke a Boy that had lost himselfe in the Woods"; "A Journey to the Kingdome of Namaschet in defence of the Great King Massasoyt against the Narrohiggansets," etc.

The author started with a band consisting of 67 Englishmen to establish a colony in Guiana in 1605; was wrecked, rescued by Spaniards, and imprisoned as a spy; and finally reached England in 1607, where he published this sad account of his adventures and the sufferings of his companions.

Madrid: Por Fernando Correa de Montenegro, 1621

A SUPERB COPY OF THE EXTREMELY RARE EARLIEST EDITION, WITH THE MAP IN MOST DESIRABLE CONDITION. The map is particularly valuable, as it is supposed to have been suppressed.

The work gives an account of the Spanish expedition sent out by order of Philip III., immediately after the return of Schouten's expedition, for the exploration of the Magellan Straits. The brothers Nodal sailed from Lisbon Sept. 27, 1618, and did not return until July 9th of the following year. They had with them two Dutch pilots, Jan de Witte, named in the narrative, and Valentine Jansz, who wrote another account of the same voyage. They had both been with Schouten on his voyage. The Strait Le Maire was rechristened S. Vincent, which name it retained for some time on Spanish maps.

As in the Church copy, the present one is without the blank leaf between the end of the narrative and the "Tabla Para Saber," and also lacks the final blank leaf.

237. ..NOORT (OLIVIER VAN). Nevwe Schiffart Warhafftige vnd eygentliche Beschreibvng der langwirigen sorglichen vnd gefahrlichen Reyse. Engraved title map, and 13 plates (corner margin of one plate torn away and some plate margins reinforced). Gedruckt zu Franckfurt durch Matthaeum Becket, 1602

This edition is an abridgment from the Dutch, and the translator announces that he gives only an extract in which will be found the principal events. De Bry probably made use of this translation in his Great Voyages, Part IX. The work is written in the form of a journal, and with the exactness of detail that would naturally be looked for in a navigator's log.

THE WORK IS EVIDENTLY ONE OF EXTREME RARITY, as the Church Catalogue mentions but one other copy, that in the John Carter Brown Library, which copy is also the only one mentioned by Sabin.

238. NORTON (JOHN). Abel being Dead yet speaketh; or, the Life & Death of that deservedly Famous Man of God, Mr. John Cotton, Late Teacher of the Church of Christ, at Boston in New England. By John Norton, Teacher of the same Church. Small 4to, boards, leather back.

Lond.: Printed by Tho. Newcomb for Lodowick Lloyd, 1658

Extremely scarce. Not in Church. The last five pages contain a catalogue of books printed for L. Lloyd, including several works by New England divines. An edition of this appeared in 1657 with the title "Life and Death of Mr. John Cotton." Autograph of Robert Moore on title.

239. OGILBY (JOHN). Africa, being an Accurate Description of the Regions of Aegypt, Barbary, Lybia, &c.; America, being the Latest, and Most Accurate Description of the New World, &c. Lond. 1670-71

The volume "America" is really a plagiarism from Montanus. It has earned for Ogilby the title of the English De Bry. The volume contains many very fine portraits and views.

Boston: Printed by T. Fleet, 1726

A beautiful copy of this book, classed by Sabin and other American bibliographers as one of the rarest of New England imprints, and of the utmost importance in any condition. This copy contains the rare leaf of "Advertisement" at the end. Size 6½ x 3 15/16 inches, a trifle larger than the Church copy.

London: Printed by John Atwood for the Author, 1695

Fine copy, with wide margins. It is interesting to note that, despite the author's ardency, nothing came of his scheme to colonize Tobago. No copy of Poyntz was in the Hoe or Church collection.

In this copy Volumes 2, 3, and 5 are identical with Sabin's collation. Volume 1 contains at page 65 the UNCANCELLED map, "Designatio Orbis Terrarum" and NOT the map on two hemispheres usually substituted for it. The engraved title-page is dated 1625, and is extended on the inner margin. This copy lacks the blank leaf (R4) toward the end of the first book, and NO slips are pasted over the head-lines of pp. 320, 359, etc., as mentioned by Sabin.

Captain John Smith's map of Virginia in volume 4, is slightly cut into on the top and side, and has the page numbers 1692 and 1693 in the upper corners. It is in its fifth state.

Volume 5, a supplementary volume, consists of the fourth and best edition of his "Pilgrimage," of which the eighth and ninth books (pp. 791-967) relate to America. The present copy of this volume appears to be the second issue. This differs from the earlier issue in the first six leaves, which were printed from a resetting of the type, and in the location of the Contents and list of "Maps and Peeces cut in Brasse." It lacks the first blank leaf.

Purchas from 1613 to 1617 issued four editions of his "Pilgrimage, or Accounts of the Religious World." The present is an entirely different work. In this is contained the substance of over 1,200 separate narrators of the world's explorations, telling their stories in their own language. Many of these men had been to the New World. It contains much material that had not been printed previously.

The George Bancroft–Lenox Library–E. D. Church copy, with the bookplates of Bancroft and Church, with the Lenox Library duplicate stamps on verso of title-pages and the name of "Jacobi Payer" written in ink on title-pages.

Imprinted at London by Robert Robison, 1596

There were three issues of this work, all published in 1596. This copy has the spelling, "Empyre" and "Citie" on title; line 14, page 21, reads "Nueuo reygno de Granada"; the other points correspond with the third title described in Sabin. Size of leaf, 6¾ by 5⅛ inches. It was written with the object of inducing Queen Elizabeth to send a force to take possession of Guiana, and contains an account of Raleigh's second voyage (1595), from which it is said Shakespeare obtained information which he used in "The Tempest."

BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THE VERY SCARCE ORIGINAL OFFICIAL STATEMENT of the circumstances attending Raleigh's death. This copy has the leaf with signature mark only preceding title, and the colophon on last leaf. It has only 63 pp., which, as it contains all the material, is a variation from other editions noted. Collation: A, 2 leaves; A (repeated) to H, each 4 leaves. Total, 34 leaves.

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION OF CAPTAIN SMITH'S FIRST BOOK. This copy has the fourth title as described in the Church catalogue, with the author's name "Captaine Smith Coronello" on title, and the two inserted leaves addressed "To the Courteous Reader." The "Relation" tells of the hanging of Capt. Kendall for plotting against the colony, and also of the capture and ultimate liberation of Captain Smith by the Indians.

Very few copies of this pamphlet, perhaps not more than two, have appeared in the auction rooms. This copy was originally in the British Museum and bears their duplicate stamp on verso of title. It apparently was sold before the variations in title were noted, as the copy now in the British Museum bears the name of T. Watson as author.

265. SMITH (CAPTAIN JOHN). Advertisements for the unexperienced Planters of New-England, or any where. Or, the Path-way to experience to erect a Plantation. Lond.: Printed by I. D. and I. H. for Michael Sparkes, 1624

FIRST EDITION. Owing to the various states of the title-pages, plates, portraits, and maps, few copies are alike. This copy, as far as text and the title-page are concerned, collates accurately with the First Edition in the Church collection. All copies seemingly lack pp. 97-104 (signature O), which has been proved by Henry Stevens never to have been printed. The present copy does not contain the folding map of Virginia. Size of leaf 11 11/16 x 7⅝ inches.

The F. R. Halsey copy, with the bookplate laid in.

London: Printed by I. D. and I. H. for Michael Sparkes, 1626.

A CLEAN, CRISP COPY OF THE SECOND EDITION, the only defects being that a few margins (which are amply broad) have slight tears, some being repaired, and two pieces torn out from margins, possibly from defect in the paper. The states of the plates follow:

The Title has the Crown on Carolus Rex.
The Richmond plate is re-engraved, and inlaid.
The Virginia Map is the 8th state.
Map of Aolde Virginia is in the 2d state.
Map of the Summer Isles is in the 3d state.

The portrait of Pocahontas is not in this copy, a not unusual occurrence, as both portraits are rarely found together.

The title in this copy is the correct one for this edition, having the portrait of Charles altered and the crown on his head, with the inscription above it reading "Carolvs Rex" in place of "Carolvs Princeps." The collation of the text is the same as that of the First Edition. The 2 maps and 2 plates are bound at the end. The leaf of preface by a mistake of the binder appears after the contents. 277. STOUGHTON (WM.). A Narrative of the Proceedings of Sir Edmond Androsse and his Complices, Who Acted by an Illegal and Arbitrary Commission from the late K. James, during his Government in New England. By several Gentlemen who were of his Council. Small 4to, half morocco, gilt edges, by Rivière (all the head-lines cut into, except the title). In consequence of his arbitrary proceedings his administration became very unpopular, and in April, 1689, the inhabitants of Boston rose in insurrection, imprisoned Andros, and restored Bradstreet, the former Governor. In the following July Andros was recalled to England.

Charles-Town, South-Carolina: Printed by P. Timothy for the Authors, 1741.

THE VERY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, in immaculate condition, and with autograph of Alex. Kidd on title. Rich says: "it places the conduct of General Oglethorpe in a very different light from that in which it has been generally represented." The writers attribute "the ruin and desolation of the Colony" to the misrepresentations and mal-administration of Gov. Oglethorpe.

The volume is of typographical as well as historical importance as a very early production from this Southern press. The printer, Peter Timothy, was the son of Lewis, and began business on his own account in 1740. Books with a Charleston imprint before 1750 are rare.

Imprinted at London, by Henrie-Bynneman, for Thomas Hacket, [1568].

FINE COPY OF THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST AND ONLY ENGLISH EDITION, and which, according to Sotheby's catalogue, is the FIRST BOOK IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE RELATING TO CANADA.

The subject of this work is South America, but it also dwells upon the general discoveries in the Northern Continent, devoting eight chapters to Canada. It is not only rare (there being few libraries which can boast of possessing the English translation), but is also a most entertaining book full of extraordinary stories which the author gathered from the people during his stay in Rio de Janeiro. This is one cause of its great rarity, as it entered into the class of popular books, which were eagerly read, copies being in consequence liable to injury and destruction. To Thomas Hacket, the publisher, is also attributed the translation.

The E. D. Church copy, with the bookplate.

282. THOROWGOOD (THOMAS). Jews in America, or, Probabilities, that those Indians are Judaical, made more probable by some Additionals to the former Conjectures. An Accurate Discourse is premised of Mr. John Elliot (who first preached the Gospel to the Natives in their own language) touching their Organization, and his Vindication of the Planters. Small 4to, boards, crimson morocco back (24 preliminary leaves including title and leaf with "Jewes in America" printed vertically across the page, being otherwise blank; Eliot's Treatise, A-D 2 in fours; "A Short Discourse concerning the New World or America," A-I 2 in fours). (The page numbers of two leaves are cut into, a few margins stained). Lond.: Printed for Henry Brome, 1660

FIRST EDITION. This is not a second edition of the first part, printed in 1650, but is a new work, in which the author answers L'Estrange's "Americans no Jewes," Lond. 1652. To his own work he appends an essay by John Eliot, the Apostle to the Indians, who believed that the Indians were the descendants of the lost tribe of Israel.

The author was a friend and correspondent of John Eliot, and was a very efficient promoter of missionary effort among the Indians.

Lond.: Printed by J. D. & R. I. for Stephen Bowtell, 1647

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, of which at least four editions (Stevens says five) were published in 1647. The author, Rev. Nathaniel Ward, on coming to this country went to Agawam, now Ipswich, Mass., where he was for two years the colleague of the Rev. Thomas Parker. He continued to reside at Agawam for a time, during which he compiled the first code of laws established in New England, the "Body of Liberties" for the Massachusetts Colony.

Early in 1645 Ward began writing "The Simple Cobbler of Agawam," a prose satire of the times, which instantly became popular and will always associate his name with early American Literature.

292. [WARD (NATHANIEL).] The Simple Cobler of Aggawamm in America. By Theodore de la Guard. The Fourth Edition with some Amendments. Small 4to, boards, morocco back, UNCUT ON ALL THREE MARGINS.
Lond.: Printed by J. D. & R. I. for Stephen Bowtell, 1647

A REMARKABLE UNCUT COPY ON ALL THREE MARGINS, measuring 8 x 6 inches. On the top margin of title is a small hole, also two price marks in ink, and on the bottom margin is a small library label number; one or two leaves have slight tears on upper margin through careless cutting of the leaves, and corner of last leaf remargined.

293. [WELDE (THOMAS) AND WINTHROP (JOHN).] A Short Story of the Rise, reign and ruin of the Antinomians, Familists & Libertines that infested the Churches of New England. . . . . Small 4to, full polished calf, gilt back, gilt edges, by Riviere.

Lond.: Printed for Ralph Smith, 1644

EXTREMELY RARE. The title-page, being larger than the letter-press of the book, has, as usual, been clipped by the binder on the fore-edge and the bottom, affecting also some leaves of the text. This is the third edition of the book, in which the errors in pagination found in the First Edition have been corrected.

Welde arrived in Boston in 1632, and was immediately ordained a minister of Roxbury. He was associated with John Eliot and Richard Mather in the preparation of the Bay Psalm Book.

The Aspinwall-Barlow-Church copy, with the autograph of the former on title-page and fly-leaf.

294. WELDE (THOMAS) AND WINTHROP (JOHN). A Short Story of the Rise, Reign, and Ruin of the Antinomians, Familists, and Libertines that infected the Churches of New England; and how they were Confuted by the Assembly of Ministers there: As also the Magistrates proceeding in Court against them. Miller arms on the sides, gilt inside borders, gilt edges, by Bedford (one or two head-lines trimmed close).

Lond.: By Felix Kynston, for William Barret. 1620

A FINE COPY OF THE RARE FIRST EDITION. An interesting point occurs in this which does not seem to have been noted, or perhaps does not occur in other well-known copies. There is an error in the printing of signature D. It seems to be one of those accidents which may be discovered after the first two or three impressions have come from the press and then rectified. The sheet D when it was put into the press to receive the verso impression was laid down in the wrong way, thus making page 6 the verso of page 1, etc., each leaf receiving the impression of the wrong page on its reverse, and upon folding the sheet in fours the error appears. It would seem, therefore, that this was one of the first copies from the press.

This work was written by the "Father of New-found-land," and bears the same relation to that colony as the works of Champlain to New France.

297. WHITBOURNE (RICHARD). A Discourse and Discovery of New-found-land, With many reasons to prooue how worthy and beneficiall a Plantation may there be made, after a far better manner than now it is. Together with the Laying open of Certaine Enormities, ... As also, an Inuitation: and likewise certaine Letters sent from that Countrey; etc. Small 4to, boards and half calf (slightly stained, lacks leaves A2, A3, A4).

Lond., By Felix Kingston, 1622

The rare SECOND EDITION with "A Loving Invitation" appended instead of being issued separately. It contains also 15 pages of letters, at the end, from Newfoundland, dated 1622, and gives the only account of Avalon, the Colony founded by Sir George Calvert, and abandoned in favor of Maryland.

With the bookplate of Edward Chappell.

298. WHITE (JOHN). The Planters Plea. or, The Grounds of Plantations examined, and vsuall Objections answered. Together with a manifestation of the causes mooving such as have lately undertaken a Plantation in New-England. Small 4to, full crushed crimson pigskin, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges by Pratt (the lower end of 3 in the date cut off and some page numbers clipped).

Lond.: Printed by William Iones, 1630

THE RARE FIRST EDITION. Called by Dr. Alexander Young "an original contemporaneous history of the highest value. as it contains facts relating to the earliest attempts at settlement in Massachusetts Bay, which can be found nowhere else, and these facts furnished by persons who were themselves engaged as adventurers in these attempts."

The E. D. Church copy, with his bookplate.

299. WHITFIELD (HENRY). The Light appearing more and more towards the perfect Day. or, A farther Discovery of the present state of the Indians in New-England, Concerning the Progresse of the Gospel amongst them.

Small 4to, full dark blue levant morocco, gilt back, inside dentelles, gilt edges, by Pratt.

Lond.: Printed by T. R. and E. M. for John Bartlet, 1651

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION. This is the FIRST ISSUE, with the word "Church" spelled "Chuch" on the title-page.

In the Lenox Library are two copies, one of which is identical with this copy, except that it lacks the leaf preceding the title; the other, containing a variation in the title, "Published by Henry Whitfield," etc., being in 6 lines instead of 3 as in the present copy.

In both of these copies, however, the word "Lordships" in the line "Your Lordships Brother and fellow labourer for the good of the poor Indians," on p. 18, has been cancelled with a stamp, as has also been done in this copy.

The top margins are closely trimmed, and the side notes on a few pages slightly cut into, and final blank leaf is wanting.

The Henry Stevens-Church copy, with Ex-Libris of each.

300. WILLIAMS (EDWARD). Virgo Triumphans: or, Virginia richly and Truly valued; more especially the South part thereof; viz. The fertile Carolina, and no lesse excelent Isle of Roanoak, of Latitude from 31 to 37 Degr. relating the meanes of raising infinite profits to the Adventurers and Planters. Etc. Woodcut vignette on title. Small 4to, full polished calf, gilt, with the Miller arms on the sides, by Rivière (few pen marks on title, margins of preliminary leaves trimmed close).

Lond.: Printed by Thomas Harper, for John Stephenson, 1650.

THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION, with an extra leaf inserted after B4, "To the worthy Gentlemen, Adventurers and Planters in Virginia." This leaf was printed separately for insertion in the second edition. Leaf c is wrongly marked c3, page 26 is wrongly numbered 34, 27 is 35, 30 is 39, 31 is 38. These points are all necessary to identify the genuine first edition. British Museum duplicate, with the stamp on the back of the title, dated 1787.

301. WILLIAMS (EDWARD) [AND JOHN FARRER]. Virgo Triumphans: or, Virginia in Generall, but the South part thereof in particular: Including the fertile Carolana, and the no lesse excellent Island of Roanoak, richly and experimentally valued. Humbly presented as the Auspice of a beginning yeare, To the Parliament of England, and Councell of State. (in 11 lines). Vignette of ornamental rule. Small 4to, full old calf, gilt, with a coronetted monogram (small hole in title, title soiled, last few leaves stained, and a few inner margins slightly wormed, affecting very lightly some words of text).

Imprint in 4 lines. London: Printed by Thomas Harper, for John Stephenson, etc., 1650.

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, AND OF AN ISSUE DIFFERENT FROM ANY OF THE REPORTED COPIES, or those that we have been able to compare it with. The title is as described above, containing TWO LESS LINES than other reported copies; the vignette of two deer is replaced with an ornamental rule; the IMPRINT

IS IN 4 LINES instead of 3, with "London" on a SEPARATE LINE, in a DIFFERENT TYPE, and the NAMES OF HARPER AND STEPHENSON IN CAPS, instead of italics.

The necessary points in errors of pagination in the First Edition are present in this copy, which collates as follows: Title, one leaf; B, 4 leaves; c 3-4; C-H in fours. The Table (Sig. I is wanting).

Quaritch mentions a copy as "the earliest issue with only the Title and 'To the Reader' as preliminary leaves." This was Farrer's own copy, and may have been a rough copy prepared for him before the actual completion of the work as offered for sale.

Evidently both the title and preliminary matter underwent changes at least once, with an entire re-setting of the Title-page.

With Armorial bookplate of James Bindley.

302. WILSON (SAMUEL). An Account of the Province of Carolina in America. Together with An Abstract of the Patent, and several other Necessary and Useful Particulars, to such as have thoughts of Transporting themselves thither. Publshed for their Information. Small 4to, half brown morocco, gilt edges by Riviere (small repairs to upper margins of last 4 ll., taking page numbers).

Lond.: Printed by G. Larkin for Francis Smith, 1682

THE FIRST EDITION of one of the earliest and rarest books relating to Carolina. The second issue, with the corrected page numbers. Written by Samuel Wilson, who was secretary to the Proprietors of the Province of Carolina. This copy contains a map inscribed: "Carolina, Newly Discribed by John Seller," a brilliant impression, showing the coast from the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay to St. Augustine. The Hoe copy was without the map.

303. [WINSLOW (EDWARD).] Good Newes from New-England: or A True Relation of things very remarkable at the Plantation of Plimoth in New-England. Shewing the wondrous providence and goodnes of God, in their preservation and continuance, being delivered from any apparent deaths and dangers. W. who hath borne a part in the fore-named troubles, and there liued since their first Arrivall. Wherevnto is added by him a briefe Relation of a credible intelligence of the present estate of Virginia. Small 4to, full polished calf, gilt, by Mackenzie (lacks the leaf of "Postscript," K2.).

Lond.: Printed by I. D. for William Bladen and John Bellamie, 1624.

Second Edition, dated the same as the first and the same as regards the text, with the addition of the leaf "A briefe Relation of . . . . . Virginia." Rare.

The E. D. Church copy, with the bookplate.

304. WINSLOW (EDWARD). The Glorious Progress of the Gospel, amongst the Indians in New England. Manifested By three Letters, under the Hand of that famous instrument of the Lord Mr. John Eliot, And another from

Mr. Thomas Mayhew jun: both Preachers of the Word, as well to the English as Indians in New England, etc. Small 4to, half levant morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere.

Lond.: Printed for Hannah Allen in Popes-head-Alley, 1649.

THE FIRST EDITION of Eliot's Indian Tract, No. 4, and OF EXTREME RARITY.

This is one of the most interesting of the Tracts on the Indians of New England. The letters from Eliot, the apostle of the Indians, are of the greatest interest and convey numerous questions asked of him by the natives in their progress towards Christianity.

A few head lines have been cut into, otherwise a very good copy, with the original errors in pagination; page 17 being numbered 24, and p. 24 being numbered 17.

305. WINTHROP (JOHN). The Humble Request of His Maiesties Loyall Subjects, the Governour and the Company late gone for New England; To the rest of their Brethren, in and of the Church of England. For the obtaining of their Prayers, and the removall of suspitions, and misconstructions of their Intentions. Small 4to, half green levant morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere.

Lond.: Printed for Iohn Bellamie, 1630

THE FIRST EDITION. AN EXCESSIVELY RARE BOOK, IN SUPERB CONDITION, a particularly LARGE COPY, measuring 7¼ x 5½ inches, with an end margin of 2 inches and lower margin of 1 3/16 inches.

THIS IS THE VERY RARE ORIGINAL FAREWELL ADDRESS of Gov. Winthrop and his Company and is not noted by Winsor. The Prince copy is in the Boston Public Library and for a long time was the only copy known in America, until one was acquired by the John Carter Brown Library in Providence a few years ago.

The signatories to the Manifesto, which is dated "From Yarmouth abbord the Arbella, April 7, 1630" are: Io: Winthrope Gov., Rich. Saltonstall; Tho. Dudley; William Coddington; George Philipps, and others.

306. WOOD (WILLIAM). New Englands Prospect. A true, lively, and experimentall description of that part of Ameriva, commonly called New England: discovering the state of that Countrie, both as it stands to our new-come English Planters; and to the old Native Inhabitants. Folding map (trimmed close on margins, affecting portions of the first and last letter of map-title, and one or two catch words cut into). Small 4to, full green levant morocco, gilt back and panels, inside dentelles, gilt over marbled edges, by Lortic.

Printed at London by Tho. Cotes for Iohn Bellamie, 1635.

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE BOOK. This is the Second Edition of the First detailed acccount of Massachusetts, and gives a topographical account of the Massachusetts Colony as far as it then extended, and also a full description of its fauna and flora.

The second part treats "Of the Indians, their persons, cloathings, diet, natures, customes, lawes, mariages, worships, conjurations, warres, games, huntings, fishings, sports, language, death, and burials."

An Indian vocabulary of five pages is placed at the end, and takes precedence of the linguistic labors of Roger Williams, John Eliot, and others. It is possible that the author may have had the co-operation of both Williams and Eliot, who came to New England in 1631.

The map, which is dated in each edition to correspond with its imprint, is more correct and fuller in its details than any previous one.

At the heading of chapter IIII. is the signature of Sir John Rawdon, and on the margin of the same page is written "J. R."

The E. D. Church property, with his bookplate.

307. ZARATE (AUGUSTIN DE). Francisco Perez Cabrera I Bobadilla M De Moia, enclosed in frames with corner ornaments, gilt gauffred edges with title on fore-edge (part of one margin missing, but not affecting text). Sevilla: Alonso Escriuano, 1577

THE SCARCE SECOND SPANISH EDITION, the one most sought and valued. Some copies, but not this, have a leaf of errata which lacks signature mark and was obviously inserted later. This copy is in beautiful condition, and a very fine specimen of old Spanish morocco binding.

308. ZARATE (AUGUSTIN DE). The strange and delectable History of the discouerie and Conquest of the Prouinces of Peru, in the South Sea. An of the notable things which there are found: and also of the bloudie ciuill vvarres which there happened for gouernment. Fine copy of the very rare First English Translation of Zarate's "Historia del Descubrimiento y Conquista del Peru." Has both titles, one with the woodcut of "The Riche Mines of Potossi." The work is in two different types, perhaps the work of two different printers, although it bears only the imprint of Richard Jhones.

Chapter 9 of Book 4 gives an interesting account of Pizarro and Almagro, including the execution of the latter and the assassination of the former.

There are several errors in pagination. Complete with "The Discouery of the ritche Mynes," at the end.

The E. D. Church copy, with the bookplate.
